The Marion Story Harry Godson,1973      Narrative Therapy with Older Adults Esther Chow,Lauren Taylor,Ada C. Mui,2025-08-19 Around the world growing populations of older adults need social care Aging is typically associated with steady physical and cognitive decline the practice of narrative therapy by contrast focuses on the resilience of the older adults by encouraging the construction of meaningful life stories Practitioners engage participants to revisit their personal journeys to uncover their life lessons finding core beliefs and values to help cope with new challenges Ultimately narrative therapy helps older adults recover meaning in life by inviting them to recollect and commemorate their life experiences This book is an in depth guide to narrative therapy for students and practitioners in health care social work gerontology and counseling showing readers how to develop a culturally sensitive practice framework with older adults It presents a step by step manual on the therapeutic use of narrative describing the theories methods skills and techniques of transformative narrative practice with older people in individual family group and collective settings Drawing on extensive clinical practice with older adults in Hong Kong and New York City the authors explore narrative methods in divergent cultural contexts to advance a globally minded approach Bringing narrative therapy to gerontological practice in culturally sensitive ways this book foregrounds alternative models of aging that celebrate a life worth living      The Big Book of Car Culture Jim Hinckley,Jon G. Robinson,2005 With the powerful rhythmic sounds of Aboriginal English and Kokatha language woven through the narrative Mazin Grace is the inspirational story of a feisty girl who refuses to be told who she is determined to uncover the truth for herself Growing up on the Mission isn t easy for clever Grace Oldman When her classmates tease her for not having a father she doesn t know what to say Pappa Neddy says her dad is the Lord God in Heaven but that doesn t help when the Mission kids call her a bastard As Grace slowly pieces together clues that might lead to answers she struggles to find a place in a community that rejects her for reasons she doesn t understand In this novel author Dylan Coleman fictionalizes her mother s childhood at the Koonibba Lutheran Mission in South Australia in the 1940s and 1950s

Screening The Sacred Joel Martin,Conrad E. Ostwalt Jr.,2018-03-05 What are the religious impulses in the 1976 film Rocky and how can they work to shape one s social identity Do the films Alien and Aliens signify the reemergence of the earth goddess as a vital cultural power What female archetypes borne out of male desire inform the experience of women in Nine and a Half Weeks These are among the several compelling questions the authors of this volume consider as they explore the way popular American film relates to religion Oddly religion and film two pervasive elements of American culture have seldom been studied in connection with each other In this first systematic exploration the authors look beyond surface religious themes and imagery in film discovering a deeper implicit presence of religion They employ theological mythological and social and political criticism to analyze the influence of religion in all its rich variety and diversity on popular film Perhaps more importantly they consider how the medium of film has helped influence and shape American religious culture secular or otherwise More than a random collection of essays this volume brings to the study of religion and film a carefully constructed analytic framework that advances our understanding of both Screening the Sacred provides fresh and welcome insight to film criticism it also holds far reaching relevance for the study of religion Progressive in its approach instructive in its analyses this book is written for students scholars and other readers interested in religion popular film and the impact of each on American culture

Film and Suspense Altan Löker,2005 An important fact about films stage plays is that the creation the creators of the most successful of them are shrouded in mystery This is true especially about Shakespeare Hitchcock other top filmmakers of Hollywood in general This book unveils the secret of the success of the masters of drama as summarized below A good film is the one that gives to the spectator the impression of witnessing real events Certain story events provide real pleasure to the spectator independently from the activities of the story characters make him her wish those events to be real This process of wishing enjoying the result wishing it to be real is the most solid basis of the illusion of reality but cannot satisfy all of his her needs It is relatively easy to please the spectator but difficult to make him experience fear Story telling consists of pleasing scaring the audience The spectator can be rewarded by showing him her what he she likes to see wishes to be real therefore sees as real But how he she can be punished made to fear real punishment The answer is to induce free floating anxiety in his her mind This response is a consequence of the spectator s repressed guilt caused by the morally unacceptable but unavoidable side consequences of his her acceptable wishes In this book the generation of free floating anxiety is explained in detail it is shown that Shakespeare knew about this phenomenon in some form and made it the basis of his dramatic technique Hitchcock learned its theory from Freud its use in drama from Shakespeare Hitchcock s Psycho and The Birds are analyzed in full partially shot by shot Shakespeare s Hamlet King Lear and Othello are analyzed also in full partially line by line The nature of suspense how it is generated are explained its relation to conflict guilt free floating anxiety hopes fears action the illusion of reality are clarified exemplified
