MacIntyre's After Virtue at 40 Tom Angier,2023-10-25 Since its publication in 1981 Alasdair MacIntyre s After Virtue has been recognised as a classic Primarily a work of moral philosophy it also draws on sociology classics political science and theology to effect a unique intellectual synthesis and its combination of erudition and challenging even provocative argument has made a significant impact throughout the humanities disciplines This volume of new essays unpacks the influence of After Virtue on ethical and political theory sociology and theology and offers a multi faceted exploration of its significance The essays offer a way into MacIntyre s philosophy and demonstrate how rather than waning in influence over the past forty years his most seminal text has found an ever wider audience and continues to inspire controversy and debate in the humanities

Reading Alasdair MacIntyre's After Virtue Christopher Stephen Lutz,2012-04-05 After Virtue is a watershed in MacIntyre's career It follows his emergence from Marxism but draws on Marxist sources and arguments It precedes his move to Thomism but already draws on Augustine and Aquinas Because of its watershed nature it has gained a wide readership in various fields but it treats a variety of issues in ways that are unfamiliar either to Marxists schooled in the social sciences or to Thomists schooled in medieval metaphysics Reading Alasdair MacIntyre's After Virtue provides a commentary that will be accessible to students valuable to scholars and useful to teachers Students will find help to navigate the two main arguments of After Virtue to understand its interpretation of history and to engage its proposal for a form of ethics and politics that returns to the tradition of the virtues Scholars will find the book useful as a general guide to MacIntyre's ethics Teachers will find a book that can help to direct their students reading and keep classroom discussions focused on the book's central concerns     The advanced class-book of modern geography, by W. Dependent Rational Animals Alasdair C. MacIntyre,1999 In Dependent Rational Animals Alasdair MacIntyre compares humans to other intelligent animals ultimately drawing remarkable conclusions about human social life and our treatment of those whom he argues we should no longer call disabled MacIntyre argues that human beings are independent practical reasoners but they are also dependent animals who must learn from each other in order to remain largely independent To flourish humans must acknowledge the importance of dependence and independence both of which are developed in and through social relationships This requires the development of a local community in which individuals discover their own goods through the discovery of a common Good     Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum,1891     British Museum Catalogue of printed Books ,1891     The Year-book of Australia ,1899     1956 and All that Keith Flett,2007

Through the Smoke of Budapest 50 Years On The February 2006 Conference of the London Socialist Historians Group was held at the Institute of Historical Research in central London one of a series of such conferences over the previous ten years Assembled were a modest group of academics and activists come to mark the 50th anniversary of the events of 1956 and to do so in a particular way Firstly by presenting new historical research on the questions under review rather than trotting out

tired orthodoxies Secondly by linking historical inquiry to political activism It was queried why such a conference was held in February 2006 rather than in the autumn and the answer was a simple one To intervene historically in the debates of the year by setting a socialist historical agenda for doing so The opening plenary heard from Sami Ramidani an Iraqi exile now lecturing at a British University from Stan Newens who had been present at the protests in 1956 and from Nigel Wilmott the letters editor of the Guardian but here speaking about Hungary The flavour was one both of historical recall of the events of 1956 and of contemporary political parallels Indeed during this session news came through via text message that the left wing MP George Galloway had been detained in a Cairo jail overnight and an emergency protest called at the Egyptian Embassy for later in the day The next two sessions focused on the key moments of autumn 1956 Hungary and Suez but again with new research examining their wider significance Mike Haynes looks at the origins of the Hungarian revolt in terms of workplace politics while Anne Alexander reviews the impact that Suez had on Nasser TM's reputation within the Arab world and Arab nationalist politics In the afternoon there was a widening of the focus One session examined the impact of the events of 1956 on left wing organisation and in particular the orthodox Communist or Stalinist tradition Terry Brotherton took a fresh look at the impact of 1956 on the Communist Party of GB while Toby Abse focused on how the events of that year worked their way through in the largest of the Western European CPs the Italian Alan Woodward examined how the crisis of Stalinist politics opened new possibilities for libertarian left wing ideas The other focused on the rise of a new left as a result of the crisis of 1956 Paul Blackledge examined the development of the theory of socialist humanism by E P Thompson and others as an alternative to Stalinism Neil Davidson examined the ideas of a forgotten left wing thinker from this period Alasdair Macintyre while Christian Hogsberg reviewed the influence of an existing Trotskyist theorist CLR James around the events of 1956 Of course the conference could not hope to cover the huge range of possible historical issues arising from the 50th anniversary of 1956 The beginnings of the consumer society and the age of affluence the birth of youth culture and rock TM n TM roll British nuclear tests and the origins of CND and campaigns against the bomb the new theatre marked by look back in anger TM In an introduction the editor Keith Flett reviews some of these wider trends However the research agenda proposed by the conference was and remains an important one Year-book of Australia ,1891 Philosophy East & West ,2000 The Advanced Class-book of Modern Geography, Physical, Political, Commercial William Hughes (F.R.G.S.),John Francon Williams,1892 The Christmas Bookseller Henry Sotheran Ltd,1891 Catalogue of Printed Books ,1891 The Journal of Education ,1936 The Education Outlook ,1932
