The Making Of Love:

The Making of Love Steve Biddulph, Shaaron Biddulph, 2001 Love starts out as a blessing even a fluke but it continues as an achievement Steve and Shaaron Biddulph Steve and Shaaron Biddulph's classic book on how to find and grow the love between a man and a woman has been credited with saving the marriages of couples across the globe Written in their earthy honest and warm style and revised and updated for the twenty first century it includes How to recognise and balance the levels of connection loving lusting and liking in your relationship How commitment can be built up in small safe steps How having children helps you grow up Getting through the crises that every couple has The changes that children bring and how to make these a plus A long term loving relationship is an achievement a craft and it can take years to develop The Making of Love is unique in that it explores the issues that couples face from both the male and female point of view and illustrates these through moving stories from people's lives

Making Love Paul Kelleher, 2015-07-16 In Making Love Sentiment and Sexuality in Eighteenth Century British Literature Paul Kelleher revises the history of sexuality from the vantage point of the literary history of sentimentalism Kelleher demonstrates how eighteenth century British philosophers essayists and novelists fundamentally reconceived the relations among sentiment sexuality and moral virtue It is his contention that sentimental discourse both philosophical and literary posited heterosexual desire as the precondition of moral feeling and conduct The author further suggests that sentimental writers fashioned the ideal of conjugal love as an ideological antidote to the theories of self love and self interest found in the works of Thomas Hobbes and Bernard Mandeville Heterosexual desire and its culmination in conjugal love in other words were represented as the privileged means for an individual to transcend self love and to develop a moral sensibility attuned to the thoughts and feelings of others At the same time Kelleher suggests other pleasures and desires particularly those rooted in same sex eroticism were increasingly depicted as antithetical to conjugal love and thus were morally devalued and socially disenfranchised Kelleher's argument unfolds through close readings of a variety of texts including Shaftesbury's Characteristics of Men Manners Opinions Times Joseph Addison and Richard Steele's Tatler and the Spectator Eliza Haywood's Love in Excess Samuel Richardson's Pamela and Henry Fielding's Tom Jones Although these texts embody diverse rhetorical strategies and thematic concerns he shows how they collectively reinforce an overarching sentimental ideology on the one hand heterosexual desire and conjugal love become synonymous with sympathy benevolence and moral goodness while on the other hand same sex desire is pathologized as a selfish withdrawal from procreation domesticity sociability and ultimately humanity itself

Making Love Just Marvin M. Ellison, 2012 These days sexual sin is far less about sex and far more about the misuse of power and exploitation of vulnerability It's time to redraw the ethical map But how should a contemporary Christian ethic of sexuality be formulated Marvin Ellison a pioneer in contemporary Christian rethinking of sexuality and sexual ethics uses a series of provocative questions to increase readers skills and confidence for engaging in ethical deliberation about sexuality Students and all adults will welcome this book for
