Christian Identity amid Islam in Medieval Spain Charles L.

Tieszen,2013-05-30 In Christian Identity amid Islam in Medieval Spain Charles L Tieszen explores a small corpus of texts from medieval Spain in an effort to deduce how their authors defined their religious identity in light of Islam and in turn how they hoped their readers would distinguish themselves from the Muslims in their midst It is argued that the use of reflected self image as a tool for interpreting Christian anti Muslim polemic allows such texts to be read for the self image of their authors instead of the image of just those they attacked As such polemic becomes a set of borders authors offered to their communities helping them to successfully navigate inter religious living

The Cambridge Companion to the Spanish Novel

Harriet Turner,Adelaida López de Martínez,2003-09-11 The Cambridge Companion to the Spanish Novel presents the development of the modern Spanish novel from 1600 to the present Drawing on the combined legacies of Don Quijote and the traditions of the picaresque novel these essays focus on the question of invention and experiment on what constitutes the singular features of evolving fictional forms It examines how the novel articulates the relationships between history and fiction high and popular culture art and ideology and gender and society Contributors highlight the role played by historical events and cultural contexts in the elaboration of the Spanish novel which often takes a self conscious stance toward literary tradition Topics covered include the regional novel women writers and film and literature This companionable survey which includes a chronology and guide to further reading conveys a vivid sense of the innovative techniques of the Spanish novel and of the debates surrounding it    The Medieval World Helen Howe,1992    Medieval History Penelope Delafield Johnson,1985
