Training Diplomats. Change and

Communication Dimitrios Kamsaris,2022-12-09 Document from the year 2014 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance Euro Business College Bielefeld language English abstract At the present diverse days globalization technological revolution economic changes and competition create pressure on all organizations both in private and public sector requesting them to adapt quickly to a new changing environment Since 1990s we observe an increased interest in culture of international relations In a rapidly changing diplomatic environment countries and organizations are facing numerous challenges leading to reformation The main question is whether diplomats are ready and willing to accept or resist to this change Resistance to change reconciles attitudes performed by change recipients in order to delay or discontinue organizational change The intention of this book is to explore the diplomats resistance to organizational and environmental changes in the Diplomatic Corps by examining the resistance reasons and the consequences on the decision making process related to the change The findings will contribute to better understanding of diplomat s reactions towards changes and may be used to promote an essential dialogue in order to overcome resistance Globalization requires governments to operate in a context different from before which is to integrate other participants of diplomacy in its own decision making processes Governments have been focusing on new strategies such as involving ministries and non state actors and institutions providing greater transparency and acting collectively as often as possible Undeniably training stands at the top of organizational priorities Many organizations believe that to survive in this increasingly demanding world they must effectively and efficiently utilize their most valuable asset their diplomats skills Thus a good training program is crucial to their success The training literature underlines the organizational and individual benefits to be gained from adopting a systematic approach to training while the human resource development trend is to guarantee through continuous development strategies a continuous improvement culture Training is an issue which its significance is well recognized by the management the trade unions and the governments The growing interest in training arises by the belief that the skill level of the workforce can importantly impact performance and competitiveness and that developing management and workforce competence is essential for organizational success

Evaluating Training Peter Bramley, 2003 This second edition of Peter Bramley's popular and practical book shows you how to build evaluation into every stage of the training process from design to delivery New material covers linking training to employee effectiveness and performing cost benefit analysis An entirely new chapter shows you how to collate and present your findings in order to change what needs changing and raise awareness of the value your training is delivering to the organisation
