Diaries Stuart Wright,2016-12-15 This diary is about one man's struggles to get to grips with fatherhood as he looks after his 6 month baby daughter in Budapest It follows their daily adventures as they explore the city armed with a ludicrous pram of gigantic proportions While being humorous it also gives an insight into how bewildering it can feel to become a father for the first time First time fathers may feel reassured to know they aren't the only ones who have found it tough The Annals of Bristol in the Nineteenth Century John Latimer,1887 Stoc 92 ,1992 A Man & A Pram Mark Cundy,2011-06-23

People travel from London to New York every day nothing unusual about that but if your journey took you 14 months you might rightly wish to seek compensation from the airline However Mark Cundy's journey was different his was a walking odyssey of immense proportions covering 5 500 miles between October 2004 and December 2005 across three continents in aid of Cancer Research UK and its overseas equivalents Facing a lonely often gruelling trek Mark encountered many setbacks and obstacles en route limited resources accommodation problems language barriers extremes of climate red tape cultural differences and health issues and met plenty of angels and a few devils as his journey pressed on through Europe across Russia and on to Australia and finally the USA There were many times he stopped to wonder What am I doing But in true Forrest Gump style he just kept on walking This is an extraordinary story told with immense humour of true grit and determination against the odds to fulfil a dream that had been many years in the making one that took the World Walker through every gamut of emotion from fear to triumph and desperation to sheer joy It was a defining achievement And to what does the pram in the title refer He didn't really take a baby with him did he Well you'll just have to read it and see Text
