Excerpt from The People's War Book History Cyclopaedia and Chronology of the Great World War

In the days of our Grandfathers each country of the world was remote no country was dependent upon any other or the rest of the world as we are today The world is closely knitted together in this day and age No Nation can be a recluse and live alone so to speak In the days gone by we have heard men say something like this Let other countries have their quarrels and their wars we can go on about our business regardless of them Their troubles need not bother us a bit The great world war it is safe to say has eradicated this provincial notion from the American people as well as from the people of all other nations About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
