Stratification Class And Conflict:

Social Stratification and Inequality Harold R. Kerbo, 1996 This text provides coverage of research and theory relating to social stratification in the US and selected international societies. It adopts general conflict principles as its theoretical orientation and focuses on the development and maintenance of the structure of inequality. This edition has been updated to include data from the 1990 census and features examples, figures, and tables. A new chapter on race, ethnicity, and gender focuses on important issues of inequality. There are also new chapters on Germany and on Japan.

Stratification, Class, and Conflict Irving Krauss, 1976

Social Stratification and Inequality Harold R. Kerbo, 2000 This revised edition aims to provide a comprehensive exploration of the economic and social divisions in human societies. The book takes a global perspective and includes detailed information on stratification around the world, addressing the ways in which governments, corporations, and workers cope with milestone changes such as greater European unification and an increased US economic presence. Extensive comparative information as well as an overview of how historically social stratification has changed and evolved gives readers a global perspective on class conflict.

Social Stratification and Inequality Harold Kerbo, 2008-03-10 Praised for its thorough research and scholarship, Social Stratification and Inequality provides a comprehensive, up-to-date exploration of the global economic and social divisions in human societies. While the book is grounded in the nature of social stratification in the United States, this edition maintains a commitment to keeping a global perspective. Comparative information on the United States and other countries, and an overview of changes in social stratification, gives readers a global perspective on class conflict.

Class Conflict and Social Stratification Thomas Humphrey Marshall (Soziologe, Grossbritannien), 1938

Nation-building and Identity Conflicts Ariel Hernandez, 2014-07-08 Ending identity conflicts through negotiated agreements is an intractable process that is embedded complexly in the nation building process. Ariel Hernandez looks on the complexity of the nation building process in the Philippines and how its social and political context constrains the achievement of a peace agreement that would withhold new challenges as the process unfolds. Mediation as one of the possible modes of intervention to resolve identity conflicts is taken as the self-evident instrument to end the 40 year old conflict between the Filipino society at large and the Bangsamoro. The analysis confirms that mediation and other types of intervention are contributing to the intractability of identity conflicts by bringing in further complexities in the negotiation process. The conceptualization of stumbling blocks may provide knowledge-based resources to develop strategies to facilitate the mediation process that allows negotiating parties to cope with the complexity of the bargaining table.
