See Richard Christensen, 2022-03-03 Teaching in the southern African nation of Botswana in the early 1980s Richard Christensen faced a new world one endlessly fascinating and challenging Experiencing warm hospitality from many people sharing both joyful celebrations and painful struggles with students he and his family encountered a deeper sense of the true meaning of community Travel in apartheid South Africa and war weary Zimbabwe gave him a fuller understanding of the reality of oppression and how people of faith endured their plight and kept hope alive In this experience so surprising in many ways he came to a deepened realization of the genuine freedom of the gospel and the hope it affords us He saw that relationships are what save us that the salvation of God in Christ is not merely personal and individual but communal and that we are thus more dependent upon one another than we realize Learning to see the world with new eyes he discovered not only a more expansive vision of the church and the world but also a more honest and complete understanding of himself as a product of an affluent and segregated society The Flashman Papers: The Complete 12-Book Collection George MacDonald Fraser, 2013-11-07 George MacDonald Fraser's uproarious bestselling Flashman series now available in one complete ebook for the first time

My Father's Bonus March Adam Langer, 2009-10-20 To his friends Seymour Langer was one of the brightest kids to emerge from Chicago's Depression era Jewish West Side To his family he was a driven and dedicated physician a devoted father and husband But to his Adam youngest son Seymour was also an enigma a somewhat distant figure to whom Adam could never quite measure up a worldly man who never left the city of Chicago during the last third of his life a would be author who spoke for years of writing a history of the Bonus March of 1932 when twenty thousand World War I veterans descended on the nation's capital to demand compensation Using this dramatic but overlooked event in U.S. history as a means of understanding his relationship with his father Adam Langer sets out to uncover why the Bonus March intrigued Seymour Langer whose personal history seemed to be artfully obscured by a mix of evasiveness and exaggeration The author interweaves the story of the Bonus March and interviews with such individuals as history aficionado Senator John Kerry and the writer and critic Norman Podhoretz with his own reminiscences and those of his father's relatives colleagues and contemporaries In the process he explores the nature of memory while creating a moving multilayered portrait of both his father and his father's generation

Automatic Assessment of Prosody in Second Language Learning Florian Höning, 2017 Worldwide there is a universal need for second language language learning It is obvious that the computer can be a great help for this especially when equipped with methods for automatically assessing the learner's pronunciation While assessment of segmental pronunciation quality i.e. whether phones and words are pronounced correctly or not is already available in commercial software packages prosody i.e. rhythm word accent etc is largely ignored although it highly impacts intelligibility and listening effort The present thesis contributes to closing this gap by developing and analyzing methods for automatically assessing the prosody of non native speakers We study the detection of word accent errors and the general assessment of the appropriateness of a speaker's rhythm We propose a flexible generic approach that
