The Challenge Of Command Reading For Military Excellence:

The Challenge of Command Roger Hurless Nye,1986 Challenge of Command Roger H. Nye,2001-10-01 A must for those who aspire to follow the profession of arms Maj Gen George S Patton Here is a unique book that emphasizes the attainment of military excellence through reading and field experience Written to help men and women prepare for positions of command in the American Armed Forces it is a product of the author s years of discussions with military commanders about their roles as decision makers moral standard bearers and energizers of military organizations In his commentary on the problems of the commander as tactician strategist warrior trainer mentor disciplinarian and moral leader the author analyzes and recommends both classical and current readings that are available for those who seek an expanded vision of their potential as commanders This book is designed to raise new challenges to conventional thinking about the art of military command Assembly West Point Association of Graduates (Organization).,1986 Parameters ,1986

Reader's Guide to Military History Charles Messenger,2013-10-31 This book contains some 600 entries on a range of topics from ancient Chinese warfare to late 20th century intervention operations Designed for a wide variety of users it encompasses general reviews of aspects of military organization and science as well as specific wars and conflicts The book examines naval and air warfare as well as significant individuals including commanders theorists and war leaders Each entry includes a listing of additional publications on the topic accompanied by an article discussing these publications with reference to their particular emphases strengths and limitations Flying Safety ,1987 Airpower Journal ,1993

Core Values for Military Leadership ,1996 Stone Tapestry Robert Holcomb,2025-04-28 18 Medal of Honor recipients are buried at the West Point Cemetery along with many of the most influential officers in US Military including Winfield Scott George Custer James Gavin and William Westmoreland The American Military Ethic James Hugh Toner,1992-01-22 This is a book about military professionals It outlines the personal reflections of a U S Army lieutenant captain on active duty in Europe during the Vietnam War There the enemy was drugs boredom racism and illiteracy Few if any books concern the Vietnam era veteran The American Military Ethic tells the story of one such veteran of basic combat training of Infantry OCS and of airborne school who had charge of a nuclear weapons unit in Europe during the late 1960s and early 1970s First person accounts are blended with a more traditional scholarly examination of professional military training for junior and senior officers ROTC and the war colleges and of the American military ethic itself Toner argues that the American military ethic has undergone a deserved rejuvenation The ethic itself which is the source of true professionalism has a sacred character for it involves its professors in a solemn oath to preserve and to protect the republic That mission can lead officers to the ultimate test of leadership whether to accomplish the mission or to safeguard the people for whom the leader is responsible Still this book is not of the guts and glory variety It is a study in practical real leadership it examines leadership problems of the type real junior officers confront daily and it explores the kinds of ethical problems real senior officers frequently confront Its thesis is this A professional military ethic depends ultimately upon the formation of responsible character in and by its leaders for that sound education is a necessity ROTC and senior professional military education depend therefore upon challenging serious and substantial academic experiences In the end the American military ethic is a function of the wisdom and virtue learned and taught by its officers This volume will be of great interest to active duty military professionals students of military history and veterans of the Vietnam era Inventing Grand Strategy and Teaching Command Jon Tetsuro Sumida,1997 Between 1890 and 1913 Captain Alfred Thayer Mahan published a series of books on naval warfare in the age of sail which established his reputation as the founder of modern strategic history But according to former Guggenheim Fellow Jon Tetsuro Sumida Mahan did not advocate national naval supremacy but instead believed that a multinational naval consortium could best defend international trade The Army Officer's Guide Keith E. Bonn,1999 This is the definitive guide to what the Army expects from its officers in leadership technical skills and character and what every officer junior or experienced needs to know to succeed in the Army of the 21st century It is packed full of information on regulations professional development academic opportunities organization and missions pay and benefits family services military courtesies and customs and professional and social life Aerospace Power Journal ,1999

Military Justice and the Conduct of Operations Edward B. Pusey,1988 Military Air Power Air University (U.S.). Press,1990 The Best Books for Academic Libraries: General works, military & naval, library science ,2002 Australian Defence Force Journal ,2003 Air & Space Power Journal ,2002 Naval War College Review Naval War College (U.S.),1988 Naval War College Review ,1988
