The Daughter of Time Josephine Tey, 2015-03-28 Inspector Alan Grant of Scotland Yard recuperating from a broken leg becomes fascinated with a contemporary portrait of Richard III that bears no resemblance to the Wicked Uncle of history Could such a sensitive noble face belong to a venomous hunchback who may have killed his brother's children to make his crown secure Or could Richard have been the victim turned into a monster by the usurpers of England's throne Grant determines to find out once and for all     The Daughters of the Plaza de Mayo David Moshman, 2006 In the late 1970s some 30 000 Argentines mostly young men and women thought to have leftist sympathies were kidnapped and tortured to death by the military government which denied what was happening In response the mothers of the disappeared came together and marched in Buenos Aires at the Plaza de Mayo demanding week after week that their children be returned or accounted for Democracy was finally restored with promises of truth and justice As memory gave way to historical amnesia however and judicial processes to reconciliation the Mothers of the Plaza de Mayo continued to march Do not forget they insisted do not forgive Sixty years later a nonlocalizable electronic agent that calls itself the Daughters of the Plaza de Mayo emerges on the global Network No one knows what the Daughters are or what they want They tell horrifying stories from Argentina and elsewhere They provide seemingly endless lists of victims names They invoke El Eternauta a comic book character from a space beyond time to press a moral perspective that demands the impossible They are singular and plural informative and obscure irritating threatening unclassifiable and relentless in the pursuit of their agenda whatever that may be     The Daughter's Way Tanis MacDonald,2012-09-01 The Daughter's Way investigates negotiations of female subjectivity in twentieth century Canadian women's elegies with a special emphasis on the father's death as a literary and political watershed. The book examines the work of Dorothy Livesay, P K Page, Jay Macpherson, Margaret Atwood, Kristjana Gunnars, Lola Lemire Tostevin, Anne Carson, and Erin Mouré as elegiac daughteronomies literary artifacts of mourning that grow from the poets' investigation into the function and limitations of elegiac convention. Some poets treat the father as a metaphor for socio-political power while others explore more personal iterations of loss but all the poets in The Daughter's Way seek to redefine daughterly duty in a contemporary context by challenging elegiac tradition through questions of genre and gender. Beginning with psychoanalytical theories of filiation, inheritance and mourning as they are complicated by feminist challenges to theories of kinship and citizenship, The Daughter's Way debates the efficacy of the literary work of mourning in twentieth century Canadian poetry. By investigating the way a daughter's filial piety performs and sometimes reconfigures such work and situating melancholia as a creative force in women's elegies the book considers how elegies inquire into the rhetoric of mourning as it is complicated by father-daughter kinship     The Daughters Of A Genius Mrs. George De Horne

Tower testing out his theories on the doctors and nurses who attend to him Grant spends weeks pondering historical information and documents with the help of Brent Carradine a likeable young American researcher working in the British Museum Using his detective s logic he comes to the conclusion that the claim of Richard being a murderer is a fabrication of Tudor propaganda as is the popular image of the King as a monstrous hunchback    The Daughter of Time ,2003 While recuperating from a broken leg Inspector Alan Grant of Scotland Yard embarks on a search through history for the truth behind Richard III s alleged murder of his brother s children in a classic of the mystery genre    The Daughter of Time Josephine Tey,1975    A Dragon Child: Reflections of a Daughter of Annam in America Lucy
