

THE DEFINITIVE DALI

A LIFETIME RETROSPECTIVE

This film presents Dali's entire oeuvre—painting, sculpture, writing, fashion and film—in the context of his extraordinary life and international career. It has been constructed through a combination of specially shot location footage, archive film, feature film material, rostrum filming of Dali's paintings, and interviews with Dali's friends and colleagues. The narration of the film has been drawn from Dali's own writings, principally, 'My Secret Life' and 'The Unspeakable Confessions of Salvador Dali' but also critical and other writings.

Filming locations include Barcelona, Cadaques, Perpignan, Paris, London, New York, Florida and filming in Dali's final great work and principal monument, the Teatro Museo Dali in Figueras.

Salvador Dali is unquestionably one of the greatest painters of the twentieth century. He is also one of the century's most extravagant personalities. His work is represented in every major public collection of modern painting, and his popularity amongst the general public is greater than any other living artist.

Dali's exceptional creativity over more than half a century encompasses not only painting, but writing, sculpture, fashion and film. Amongst his greatest creations is his own persona, adorned like his idol Velazquez with a spectacular moustache. Dali is a self-proclaimed genius, his behaviour is not governed by the norms of conventional society, his personal philosophy transcends the ordinary, he lives by his own rules. Dali has said, 'The only difference between me and a madman is that I am not mad!'
