Nurses and Midwives in Nazi Germany Susan Benedict, Linda Shields, 2014-04-24 This book is about the ethics of nursing and midwifery and how these were abrogated

during the Nazi era Nurses and midwives actively killed their patients many of whom were disabled children and infants and patients with mental and other illnesses or intellectual disabilities The book gives the facts as well as theoretical perspectives as a lens through which these crimes can be viewed It also provides a way to teach this history to nursing and midwifery students and for the first time explains the role of one of the world s most historically prominent midwifery leaders in the Nazi crimes Lilies That Fester John Bossert Brown Jr.,2022-12-20 The twentieth century promised much in terms of progress Europe was at peace and America was poised to become a world superpower Certain religious leaders envisioned new programs to help the poor while others pondered plans to evangelize the world Protestants in America were divided over issues such as biblical authority and social programs but there was a surface unity and a widespread agreement shared with Catholic and Orthodox Christians about the sanctity of human life an ethic rooted in the Bible and church history Seventy nations responding to medical advances in obstetrics fetology and a growing concern for women s health had moved to prohibit abortion Today 120 years later there is a deep division among Christians and in American society about abortion and much else The causes are no doubt complex but several things are clear Worldwide there have been over one billion unborn children destroyed by abortion There have been sixty four million unborn children destroyed by abortion in the United States over half of them to women who identify as Christians In a century of massive violence due to war planned famines mass executions and terror abortion reigns supreme That the Judeo Christian ethic of the sanctity of life has been shredded owes much to the scandal of Christian discipleship The German Euthanasia Program Fredric Wertham,1992 Charles Edward of Saxe-Coburg Alan R.
