The Gold Bug Variations:

The Gold Bug Variations Richard Powers, 2019-11-07 An enthralling story about desire new love and the mysteries of science from the Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Overstory Stuart Ressler a brilliant biologist sets out in 1957 to crack the genetic code His efforts are sidetracked by other more intractable codes social moral musical spiritual and he falls in love with a member of his research team Years later another young man and woman team up to investigate a different mystery why did the eminently promising Ressler suddenly disappear from the world of science Strand by strand these two love stories twist about each other in a double helix of desire A love story of charm and substance brimming over with ideas yet anchored in emotional truth Sunday Telegraph Goldbug Variations Powers, 1994-03-01

Wild Science Janine Marchessault, Kim Sawchuk, 2000 Wild Science investigates the world wide boom in health culture It argues that science is a practice bound in values and institutions and argues for a responsible engagement with the public cultures of science and health

The Gold Bug Variations Richard Powers, 2025-06-12 A love story of charm and substance brimming over with ideas yet anchored in emotional truth SUNDAY TELEGRAPH Powers has triumphantly restored the philosophical novel OBSERVER A heroic tour de force NEW YORK TIMES In 1957 brilliant biologist Stuart Ressler sets out to crack the genetic code Yet his efforts are sidetracked by other more complex codes social moral musical and spiritual as he falls in love with a member of his research team Years later another young man and woman investigate a different mystery why did the promising Ressler suddenly vanish from the world of science Strand by strand these two love stories intertwine in a double helix of desire in an enthralling tale about new love and the mysteries of science

Understanding Richard Powers Joseph Dewey, 2002 Dewey contends that while Powers's novels investigate the most pressing issues of the new millennium the novelist is most deeply interested in the same thematic argument that consumed Ralph Waldo Emerson and Emily Dickinson the problem of the self the deep and unshakable loneliness that has always been at the heart of the American literary imagination BOOK JACKET

The Cryptographic Imagination Shawn James Rosenheim, 2020-03-24 Originally published in 1996 In The Cryptographic Imagination Shawn Rosenheim uses the writings of Edgar Allan Poe to pose a set of questions pertaining to literary genre cultural modernity and technology Rosenheim argues that Poe's cryptographic writing his essays on cryptography and the short stories that grew out of them requires that we rethink the relation of poststructural criticism to Poe's texts and more generally reconsider the relation of literature to communication Cryptography serves not only as a template for the language character and themes of much of Poe's late fiction including his creation the detective story but also as a secret history of literary modernity itself Both postwar fiction and literary criticism the author writes are deeply indebted to the rise of cryptography in World War II Still more surprising in Rosenheim's view Poe is not merely a source for such literary instances of cryptography as the codes in Conan Doyle's The Dancing Men or in Jules Verne but through his effect on real cryptographers Poe's writing influenced the outcome of World War II and the development of the Cold War

However unlikely such ideas sound The Cryptographic Imagination offers compelling evidence that Poe's cryptographic writing clarifies one important avenue by which the twentieth century called itself into being The strength of Rosenheim's work extends to a revisionistic understanding of the entirety of literary history as a repression of cryptography and then in a breathtaking shift of register interlinks Poe's exercises in cryptography with the hyperreality of the CIA the Cold War and the Internet What enables this extensive range of applications is the stipulated tension Rosenheim discerns in the relationship between the forms of the literary imagination and the condition of its mode of production Cryptography in this account names the technology of literary production the diacritical relationship between decoding and encoding that the literary imagination dissimulates as hieroglyphics the hermeneutic relationship between a sign and its content Donald E Pease Dartmouth College Identification Practices in Twentieth-Century Fiction Rex Ferguson, 2021-07-14

The task of identifying the individual has given rise to a number of technical innovations including fingerprint analysis and DNA profiling A range of methods have also been created for storing and classifying people's identities such as identity cards and digital records Identification Practices and Twentieth Century Fiction tests the hypothesis that these techniques and methods as practiced in the UK and US in the long 20th century are inherently related to the literary representation of self identity from the same period Until now the question of who one is in the sense of formal identification has remained detached from the question of who one is in terms of the representation of unique individuality Placing these two questions in dialogue allows for a re evaluation of the various ways in which uniqueness has been constructed during the period and for a re assessment of the historical and literary historical context of such construction In chapters ranging across the development of fingerprinting the institution of identity cards during the Second World War DNA profiling and contemporary digital surveillance and an analysis of writing by authors including Joseph Conrad Graham Greene Elizabeth Bowen J G Ballard Don DeLillo and Jennifer Egan Identification Practices and Twentieth Century Fiction makes an original contribution to the disciplines of English Literature History and Cultural Studies

Time and the Literary Karen Newman, Jay Clayton, Marianne Hirsch, 2013-09-13

Time and the literary the immediacy of information technology has supposedly annihilated both Email cell phones satellite broadcasting seem to have ended the long standing tradition of encoding our experience of time through writing Paul de Man's seminal essay Literary History and Literary Modernity and newly commissioned essays on everything from the human genome to grammatical tenses argue however that the literary constantly reconstructs our understanding of time From eleventh century France or a science fiction future Time and the Literary shows how these two concepts have been and will continue to influence each other Vejledning i Mørkelægning. Udarbejdet af Industriraadets Luftværnskontor og godkendt af Statens civile Luftværn, 1939 This Mad "instead" Arthur Michael Saltzman, 2000 Saltzman reveals figuration to be both inevitable and inevitably unreliable and he illustrates how these writers treat this condition not as an impasse but as a point of departure indeed as an artistic mandate and creative opportunity Tvl, 1997 Warring Fictions Jim Neilson, 1998

Although the Vietnam conflict ended two decades ago a fierce cultural war over how its literature is to be perceived continues to be waged Warring Fictions accuses American critics of twenty years of whitewash and reminds us that Vietnam was not just an American anguish and its fiction a rock and roll acid trip From the blind patriotism of The Green Berets to the postmodern hip of Dispatches this book brings history and politics back to the Vietnam War novel It is a brilliant case study of canon formation and of the role commercial and academic literary institutions have played in assessing Vietnam War fiction it exposes their complicity in the writing of recent American history and rebukes academic literary culture that speciously purports a radical calling for itself Beyond an academic audience this book will challenge all who are piqued by studies of the war and of Vietnam War fiction And it raises important questions about the interlocking interests and ideologies of literary culture the publishing industry the mass media and the academy With its exemplary command of actual history and its well documented investigation of the Vietnam fiction canon this book throws a probing light on a literary culture whose tastes and attitudes have helped enforce a conservative interpretation of the war In extraordinary readings of The Quiet American The Ugly American The Prisoners of Quai Dong The Laotian Fragments Dispatches The Things They Carried and In Country Warring Fictions provides a radical historical perspective on the fiction that emerged from the Vietnam War

De slag om Shelley Antonius Bernardus Maria Naaijkens, 2002 Essays over het vertalen van literaire teksten Review of Contemporary Fiction, 1993 A Body of Individuals Sue-Im Lee, 2009 Why are some versions of the collective we admired and desired while other versions are scorned and feared A Body of Individuals The Paradox of Community in Contemporary Fiction examines the conflict over the collective we through discourses of community In the discourse of benevolent community community is a tool towards achieving healing productiveness and connection In the discourse of dissenting community community that serves a function is simply another name for totalitarianism instead community must merely be a fact of coexistence What are the sources and the appeal of these irreconcilable views of community and how do they interact in contemporary fiction s attempt at imagining we By engaging contemporary US writers such as Toni Morrison Richard Powers Karen Tei Yamashita Lydia Davis Lynne Tillman and David Markson with theorists such as Jean Luc Nancy Giorgio Agamben Fran ois Lyotard Ernesto Laclau Louis Althusser Roland Barthes and Ludwig Wittgenstein this book reveals how the two conflicting discourses of community benevolent and dissenting are inextricably intertwined in various literary visions of we we of the family of the world of the human and of coexistence These literary visions demonstrate in a way that popular visions of community and postmodern theories of community cannot the dialectical relationship between the discourses of benevolent community and dissenting community Sue Im Lee argues that contemporary fiction s inability to resolve the paradox results in a model of ambivalent community one that offers unique insights into community and into the very notion of unity The Influence of Music on American Literature Since 1890 Kiyoko Magome, 2008 Aidan and Sarah Cooper have no idea what they re getting into one afternoon when they discover a mysterious coded document in a secret compartment of an antique English desk their father recently bought at an auction Something about the document seems familiar to Sarah and that night she realizes what it is the document seems to be referring to some books she has read the Starcatchers series about the origin of Peter Pan But how could that be The document seems far older than the books And of course the books are just stories Curious Sarah and Aidan begin to decipher the mysterious document At first it s a game unraveling the mystery piece by piece each piece leading them to a new deeper puzzle But soon the game turns strange and scary They discover that the stories are real and that what they thought was a fictional battle between good and evil is still going on And the scariest part is They have become part of it Pursued by a being that can take any form and will stop at nothing to get what it wants from them Aidan and Sarah embark on a desperate thrilling quest for help a quest that leads them to some unforgettable people in some unlikely places including one that s not supposed to exist at all At each step they must solve new puzzles and escape new dangers all the while knowing that if they fail the evil they are fleeing will be let loose on an unsuspecting world Time ,1991 American Writers Leonard Unger,A.
