The Dark Red Star:

World War II Soviet Armed Forces (3) Nigel Thomas, 2013-01-20 A detailed analysis of the Soviet armed forces during the final days of the war covering the soldiers that successfully turned the tide against the Nazi onslaught and pushed it back into Germany itself. This final part of the series documents the Red Army's push through Germany to Berlin which eventually culminated in the surrender of the German forces to the Allies in 1945. It also offers a detailed breakdown of all the armed forces that conducted the offensive campaigns on the Eastern Front including the army air force paratroopers navy and NKVD troops. Its colourful illustrations also include the uniforms and organizations of the Russian forces serving against Japan until the eventual surrender of all Japanese Imperial forces in August 1945.

Armies of the Russo-Polish War 1919-21

Nigel Thomas, 2014-11-20 In 1918 war broke out for Poland's independence involving the the Poles the Red and White Russian armies at least two different Ukrainian forces and Allied intervention troops. The armies that fought these campaigns were extraordinarily varied in their uniforms and insignia equipment and weapons and when peace was signed in 1921 Poland had achieved recognised nationhood for the first time since 1794. Featuring specially commissioned full colour artwork this engaging study explains and illustrates the armies that fought in the epic struggle for the rebirth of the independent Polish nation in the bitter aftermath of World War I and the Russian Revolution.

Gaskell's Compendium of Forms George A. Gaskell, 1884 Voicing the Soviet Experience Katharine Hodgson, 2003-11-06 The career of Olga Berggolts offers a case study in the complexities that faced Soviet writers in the Stalin era and demonstrates that the borders between official and unofficial literature were permeable and shifting. This study draws on unpublished materials including the poet's notebooks and diaries to show how conflict and ambiguity functioned as a structuring principle in her work. The tensions of attempting to reconcile Party loyalty with personal and artistic integrity are revealed in her lyric poetry her treatment of other genres including prose and in the intensively intra textual nature of her writing. Dr Hodgson reassesses the cultural heritage of an era that can seem remote and impenetrable but which is complex and intriguing.
