The Dear Joe Letters:

The Dear Joe Letters Martin J. Heinecken, Bertram C. Gilbert, 1984 Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1945 Shaping History Helen Geracimos Chapin, 1996-07-01 Just a decade after the first printing press arrived in Honolulu in 1820 American Protestant missionaries produced the first newspaper in the islands. More than a thousand daily weekly or monthly papers in nine different languages have appeared since then. Today they are often considered a secondary source of information but in their heyday Hawaii's newspapers formed one of the most diversified vigorous and influential presses in the world. In this original and timely work Helen Geracimos Chapin charts the role Hawaii's newspapers played in shaping major historic events in the islands and how the rise of the newspaper abetted the rise of American influence in Hawaii. Shaping History is based on a wide selection of written and oral sources including extensive interviews with journalists and others working in the newspaper industry. Students of journalism and Hawaiian history will find this comprehensive history of Hawaii's newspapers especially valuable.
