

DEAR MAN

The acronym DEAR MAN outlines a strategy for communicating effectively. This strategy will help you express your needs and wants in a way that is respectful to yourself and others, increasing the likelihood of a positive outcome.

Describe

Clearly and concisely describe the facts of the situation, without any judgment.

"You have asked me to work late 3 days this week."

Express

Use "I" statements to express your emotions.

"I feel overwhelmed by the extra work I've been given."

Assert

Clearly state what you want or need. Be specific when giving instructions or making requests.

"I need to resume my regular 40-hour work week."

Reinforce

Reward the other person if they respond well to you.

Smiling, saying "thank you", and other kind gestures work well as reinforcement.

Mindfulness

Being mindful of your goal means not getting sidetracked or distracted by other issues.

"I would like to resolve the overtime issue before talking about the upcoming project."

Appear confident

Show confidence (even if you don't feel it) by using good posture, eye contact, and tone of voice.

Stand up straight, make good eye contact, speak clearly, and don't fidget.

Negotiate

Know the limits of what you are willing to accept, but be willing to compromise within them.

"I'll finish the extra work this week, but I won't be able to manage the same amount of work next week."
