Selected Poems Rudyard Kipling, 2006-06-29 Rudyard Kipling 1865 1936 is often regarded as the unofficial Laureate of the British Empire Yet his writing reveals a ferociously independent figure at times violently opposed to the dominant political and literary tendencies of his age Arranged in chronological order this diverse selection of his poetry shows the development of Kipling's talent his deepening maturity and the growing sombreness of his poetic vision Ranging from early exhilarating celebrations of British expansion overseas including Mandalay and Gunga Din to the dignified and inspirational If and the later deeply moving Epitaphs of the War inspired by the death of Kipling's only son it clearly illustrates the scope and originality of his work It also offers a compelling insight into the Empire both at its peak and during its decline in the early years of the twentieth century

The Forms of Michael Field LeeAnne M. Richardson, 2021-11-08 Michael Field the poetic identity created by Katharine Bradley 1846 1914 and her niece Edith Cooper 1862 1913 ceaselessly experimented with forms of identity and forms of literary expression The Forms of Michael Field argues that their modes of self creation are analogous to their poetic creations and that exploring them in tandem is the best way to understand Michael Field's cultural and literary importance Michael Field deploys a different form in each volume of their lyric poetry translations of Sappho ekphrasis songs sonnets and devotional verse They also appropriate and revise the dramatic genres of verse tragedy and the masque Each of these experiments in form enable Michael Field to differently address the cultural questions that beset late Victorian women writers Drawing on the insights of new lyric studies and new formalism this book analyzes Michael Field's continual quest for
