The Devil Next Door:

Loveology Dan Hunt, 2017-08-02 For every reaction there is an opposite For every God there is a Devil For every love there is a heartbreak Tenebris Tim Curran, 2018-01-04 It comes out of the night It kills with animal stealth and viciousness but with an almost human capacity for cruelty and sadism And this time it has left a witness Jim Duchane watched it kill his two best friends Now tormented by their deaths and skeptical of his own memories of that awful night he is approached by two fringe monster hunters who are desperate to track the beast With his help they will hunt down a monster of Native American folklore whose very existence belies a terrible biological reality And it may be the worse mistake Jim has ever made Blackout Tim Curran, 2017-12-31 In the midst of a beautiful summer in a perfectly American suburban middle class neighborhood a faraway evil is lurking waiting to strike the unsuspecting residents First come the flashing lights then the heavy rains high winds and finally a total blackout But that's only the beginning When the whipping black tentacles fall from the sky and begin snatching people at random the denizens of Piccamore Way must discover the terrifying truth of what these beings have planned for the human race Worm Tim Curran, 2017-12-12 On Pine Street the houses begin to shake The earth begins to move The streets crack open and yards split asunder and rising from subterranean depths far below a viscid black muck bubbles up and floods the neighborhood In it are a ravenous army of gigantic worms seeking human flesh They wash into houses they come up through the sewers through plumbing filling toilets and tubs seeking human prey Cut off from the rest of the town the people of Pine Street must wage a war of survival or they'll never see morning As bad as the worms are there's something worse and far larger waiting to emerge American Illustrated Magazine, 1888 Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly Frank Leslie, 1888 There's a Disco Ball Between Us Jafari Sinclair Allen, 2021-11-15 In There's a Disco Ball Between Us Jafari S Allen offers a sweeping and lively ethnographic and intellectual history of what he calls Black gay habits of mind In conversational and lyrical language Allen locates this sensibility as it emerged from radical Black lesbian activism and writing during the long 1980s He traverses multiple temporalities and locations drawing on research and fieldwork conducted across the globe from Nairobi London and Paris to Toronto Miami and Trinidad and Tobago In these locations and archives Allen traces the genealogies of Black gay politics and cultures in the visual art poetry film Black feminist theory historiography and activism of thinkers and artists such as Audre Lorde Marsha P Johnson Essex Hemphill Colin Robinson Marlon Riggs Pat Parker and Joseph Beam Throughout Allen renarrates Black queer history while cultivating a Black gay method of thinking and writing In so doing he speaks to the urgent contemporary struggles for social justice while calling on Black studies to pursue scholarship art and policy derived from the lived experience and fantasies of Black people throughout the world Doll Face Tim Curran, 2018-01-26 Six friends are returning home from a night out when they end up in a town called Stokes They discover they are trapped there as Stokes does not really exist The actual town had burned to the ground more than fifty years ago The Stokes they are in is a nightmare version of the former town engineered
