The Gates Of Janus Serial Killing And Its Analysis:

The Gates of Janus Ian Brady, 2001 Introduction by Colin Wilson Certain to be one of the most controversial books of the year this is a full length work by Ian Brady who along with Myra Hindley was responsible for The Moors Murders in the early 1960s Written after Colin Wilson suggested that he analyse serial murder and come to terms with the crimes he committed Brady's work is both psychological and philosophical and is based upon his readings observations and life story An extraordinary work that provides an insight into the mind of a criminal as never before Kingship, Madness, and Masculinity on the Early Modern Stage Christina Gutierrez-Dennehy, 2021-09-30 Kingship Madness and Masculinity examines representations of mad kings in early modern English theatrical texts and performance practices Although there have been numerous volumes examining the medical and social dimensions of mental illness in the early modern period and a few that have examined stage representations of such conditions this volume is unique in its focus on the relationships between madness kingship and the anxiety of lost or fragile masculinity The chapters uncover how as the early modern understanding of mental illness refocused on human rather than supernatural causes public stages became important arenas for playwrights actors and audiences to explore expressions of madness and to practice diagnoses Throughout the volume the authors engage with the field of disability studies to show how disability and mental health were portrayed on stage and what those representations reveal about the period and the people who lived in it Altogether the essays question what happens when theatrical expressions of madness are mapped onto the bodies of actors playing kings and how the threat of diminished masculinity affects representations of power This volume is the ideal resource for students and scholars interested in the history of kingship gender and politics in early modern drama Transnational Horror Cinema Sophia Siddique, Raphael Raphael, 2017-02-24 This book broadens the frameworks by which horror is generally addressed Rather than being constrained by psychoanalytical models of repression and castration the volume embraces M M Bakhtin's theory of the grotesque body For Bakhtin the grotesque body is always a political body one that exceeds the boundaries and borders that seek to contain it to make it behave and conform This vital theoretical intervention allows Transnational Horror Cinema to widen its scope to the social and cultural work of these global bodies of excess and the economy of their grotesque exchanges With this in mind the authors consider these bodies potentials to explore and perhaps to explode rigid cultural scripts of embodiment including gender race and ability Mediating Madness S. Cross, 2010-02-24 Mediating Madness examines how mediations of madness emerge disappear and interleave only to re emerge at unexpected moments Drawing on social and cultural histories of madness history of art and popular journalism the book offers a unique interdisciplinary understanding of historical and contemporary media representations of madness Tartan Noir Len Wanner, 2015-04-20 A comprehensive and fascinating guide to the worldwide crime fiction phenomenon known as Tartan Noir covering all its major authors What is Tartan Noir Which authors belong to this global crime fiction phenomenon Which books should you read first next again or not at all And what are the many historical political and cultural influences that have woven themselves into the Tartan Noir success story Here Len Wanner investigates the literature s four main sub genres the detective the police the serial killer and the noir novel Covering four decades worth of literary history Wanner offers not only four in depth cross examinations but also close readings of another 40 novels everything from commercial hits and critical triumphs to curiosity pieces and cult classi Books critiqued include international bestsellers by the likes of Ian Rankin William McIlvanney Val McDermid and Denise Mina alongside lesser known gems by counter cultural icons such as Hugh C Rae Ray Banks Allan Guthrie Helen FitzGerald and many more Looking for Laura David Wilson,2011 Looks at the way in which crime is packaged and presented for consumption by a news hungry public and the pressure exerted on experts by the media

Whitaker's Almanack 2002 Stationery Office, The,2002 This text brings together a wide range of facts figures and directory information It is the essential what s what and who s who of the world today providing everything a reader might wish to know in a world driven by information Unlocking the Prison Muse Julian Broadhead,2006 Unlocking The Prison Muse examines the history of prisoners writing in the UK from Oscar Wilde to the present day It details the inspirations and motivations for prison writers the facilitating and disabling factors involved in writing for publication while in prison and the effects on the writers on the victims of their offending on wider society and on penal reform The book covers autobiography and memoir fiction drama poetry and journalism and considers whether writing success can assist rehabilitation It covers the inconsistency of censorship in the prison system and the moral and practical implications of criminals profiting by writing about their offences BOOK JACKET True Vampires Sondra London,2003-10 Ripped from today s headlines and mined from historical records Vampires of True Crime invades the minds of real bloodsucking killers from Romania Russia France Wales Brazil South Africa the Kentucky hills and the streets of Los Angeles

Reflections in Personal Construct Theory Richard J. Butler,2009-04-27 Publisher supplied data The book aims to discuss different aspects of reflexivity by inviting well known practitioners to reflect on how reflexivity has impacted on their work Each chapter will cover an aspect of personal construct theory which the author has found helpful in their work its relation to reflexivity how they have incorporated this in practice and how it has enhanced their understanding of their own self construing Around 20 authors will be invited to contribute Dr Richard Butler is a Consultant Clinical Psychologist with East Leeds Primary Care Trust in the UK He is an Associate Fellow of the British Psychological Society and has published extensively in the areas of both sport psychology and clinical psychology Headpress ,2001 The Publishers Weekly ,2001 The Evil 100 Martin Gilman

Wolcott,Stephen J. Spignesi,2002 Provides profiles of the men and women who have committed the world s worst crimes

Personal Constructivism Larry Milton Leitner,Jill C. Thomas,2009 In a sense the multifaceted contributions in this compendium deconstruct and reconstruct the very concept of personal construct psychology tracing its personal origins in the life and work of George Kelly examining its implications for the construction of a social self and its shadow side alienation and exploring its affordances for a striking range of clinical and theoretical issues Anyone who wonders whether this wellspring of constructivist psychology continues to feed into vital contemporary discourse will be reassured by the strength vitality and novelty of the contributions to these pages and the clarity with which Kelly's voice is echoed and extended in the voices of subsequent generations of scholars Robert A Neimeyer Ph D University of Memphis and author Constructivist Psychotherapy

Personality-disordered Patients Michael H. Stone, 2006 Taking in the entire spectrum of personality disorders from the DSM Anxious Cluster to antisocial personality disorder this book offers practical guidance for assessing the amenability of patients to psychotherapy By focusing on which patients are likely to respond well to therapeutic intervention and which will prove most resistive Personality Disordered Patients Treatable and Untreatable can assist clinicians in determining with what kinds of patients they will most likely succeed and with which ones failure is almost a certainty Michael Stone establishes the attributes that affect this amenability such as self reflection motivation and life circumstances as guidelines for evaluating patients then describes borderline and other personality disordered patients with varying levels of symptoms from mild to severe Sharing observations from many years of practice he identifies factors associated with low treatability and reviews personality traits whose presence if intense even if unaccompanied by a definable personality disorder creates severe problems for psychotherapy Numerous case studies provide examples that will help clinicians determine which of their patients are most likely to benefit from their efforts and thereby establish their own limits of effectiveness
