The Global Crisis in Foreign Aid Richard Grant, Jan Nijman, 1998-06 The internal destabilization of many poor countries that accompanied the end of the Cold War and the general failure of structural adjustment programs have changed the nature and allotment of foreign aid around the world Major donors of foreign aid such as the United States Japan and the European Union have been shifting their geographical priorities in allocating aid as well as their project emphasis since the end of the Cold War In addition multilateral aid agencies the World Bank the United Nations and the International Monetary Fund are attempting to redress past failures of aid and revamp policies and priorities Moreover aid recipients in Africa the Middle East Asia Eastern Europe the former Soviet republics and Central America are establishing priorities of their own and evaluating the success and failure of past aid programs This volume stands out in the literature on foreign aid because it includes contributions from eight policy representatives from a range of important donor and recipient countries the United States Japan the Netherlands Bolivia Egypt Bangladesh El Salvador and Poland Timely in its assessment of the crisis and the transition in the foreign aid regime the book provides a view from inside the policy process and imparts a researcher's perspective on the changing priorities for donors and recipients The wide ranging essay most previously unpublished aim to shed light on the changing political economic and regional geographies of aid at the end of the twentieth century

Foreign Aid in a World in Crisis Viktor Jakupec, Max Kelly, John McKay, 2024-02-29 This book investigates the geopoliticisation of foreign aid in recent years against a background of global overarching crises such as climate change conflict Covid 19 economic crisis energy shortages and migration Foreign aid has historically been understood as assisting both with the development objectives of the recipients and with the trade and geopolitical interests of the donors In the first decades of the 21st century however this balance has been shifted by a series of complex global challenges This book argues that donors have now moved towards framing aid as a geopolitical instrument wherein aid can be given or withheld based on power or political intent thus imposing the donor's specific values and norms This book provides an in depth analysis of this weaponisation of foreign aid within a framework of global disruption and ultimately concludes that the world is at a tipping point towards a new socio political world order Asking important questions about the power dynamics at play within the aid sector this book will be an important read for researchers across development studies political science international relations and global affairs
