Zuckerman orients the reader with an introduction to the history of women's magazines in the United States and a historiographical review of sources in the field. Business advertising market research content analysis editors and writers and images of women in the media are among the topics covered in the entries. The volume also features special sections on specific women's journals, exhaustive subject and author indexes and descriptions of manuscript collections. This work is an important resource for professionals, students and scholars in media, women's history, advertising and business. Cutting for All! Kevin L. Seligman, 1996. Containing 2,729 entries. Kevin L. Seligman's bibliography concentrates on books, manuals, journals and catalogs covering a wide range of sartorial approaches over nearly five hundred years. After a historical overview, Seligman approaches his subject chronologically, listing items by century through 1799, then by decade. In this section, he deals with works on flat patterning, draping, grading and tailoring techniques, as well as on such related topics as accessories, armor, civil costumes, clerical costumes, dressmakers' systems, fur, gloves, leather, military uniforms and undergarments. Seligman then devotes a section to those American and English journals published for the professional tailor and dressmaker. Here too, he includes the related areas of fur and undergarments. A section devoted to journal articles features selected articles from costume and noncostume-related professional journals and periodicals. The author breaks these articles down into three categories: American, English and other. Seligman then devotes separate sections to other related areas, providing alphabetical listings of books and professional journals for costume and dance, dolls, folk and national dress, footwear, millinery and wigmaking and hair. A section devoted to commercial pattern companies, periodicals and catalogs is followed by an appendix covering pattern companies, publishers and publications. In addition to full bibliographic notation, Seligman provides a library call number and library location if that information is available. The majority of the listings are annotated. Each listing is coded for identification and cross-referencing. An author index, a title index, a subject index and a chronological index will guide readers to the material they want. Seligman's historical review of the development of publications on the sartorial arts, professional journals and the commercial paper pattern industry puts the bibliographical material into context. An appendix provides a cross-reference guide for research on American and English pattern companies, publishers and publications. Given the size and scope of the bibliography, there is no other reference work even remotely like it. Doll Makers & Marks Dawn Herlocher, 1999. Covers 3,000 dolls from the world's leading doll makers with charts, listings, line drawings, more. Provides detailed descriptions of each manufacturer's production history, mold characteristics, size numbers, tips on spotting reproductions and much more. The Woman's Collection Woman's College of the University of North Carolina. Library, 1950. The Woman's Collection University of North Carolina (1793-1962) Woman's College, Greensboro, Library, 1951. The Publishers Weekly, 1953. A.L.A. Booklist, 1953. Paper Americana Lou W. McCulloch, 1980. Antiquarian Bookman, 1963. Antique Trader Antiques and Collectibles 2004 Price Guide Kyle Husfloen, 2003. This is an authoritative and detailed annual to the fast-growing world of antiques and collectibles.
