The Golden Cobwebs:

Cobwebs in the Corner Karolynne B. Ford, 2011-07-15 The spider doesn't know till the wind begins to blow What fate will ever have in store for it To build among the trees could tempt the gentle breeze To test the strength of gossamer and wit And as the web breaks down and it tumbles to the ground It is taken as a lesson learnt its life Challenges are memories with pride the spider clings to these For these are blessings hidden in the strife The silken thread that binds it to foundations left behind it Is all the spider ever has to trust Web after web may tear but the spider knows somewhere There's a place where its efforts will prove just Never be de swayed dreams are dreamt not made But with faith and passion dreams can all come true When everything seems crazy and perspective looking hazy Then the spider needs to get another view As it comes across a wall the spider has to crawl Or like many others turn and crawl some more So as its fate directed to the corner now protected The spider spins a banner to its war Memories and chances experiences romances Are captured in the web of life and skill Loved and well protected revered and respected The cobwebs in the corner linger still The Golden Cobwebs Yia-Yia Sophia
