The Dark Room:

The Dark Room Rachel Seiffert, 2010-04-27 The Dark Room tells the stories of three ordinary Germans Helmut a young photographer in Berlin in the 1930s who uses his craft to express his patriotic fervour Lore a twelve year old girl who in 1945 guides her young siblings across a devastated Germany after her Nazi parents are seized by the Allies and fifty years later Micha a young teacher obsessed with what his loving grandfather did in the war struggling to deal with the past of his family and his country

The Dark Room Minette Walters, 1995 When she wakes from her coma Jinx Kingsley can remember nothing about her alleged suicide attempt She would never try to kill herself over Leo Wallader her missing fiancé who disappeared with her best friend Surely it was she who wanted to break the engagement With the help of Dr Alan Protheroe of the Nightingale Clinic Jinx slowly begins to unlock her nightmares and piece together the fragments of the last few weeks The truth about what happened to her lies deep within her mind But what terrifying memories is she about to disturb

In the Dark Room Rosanna Maule, Julie Beaulieu, 2009 This book examines Duras's contribution to contemporary cinema The dark room in the collection's title refers to one of Duras's metaphors for the writing process la chambre noire as the solitary space of literary creation the place where she struggles to project her internal shadow onto the blank page The dark room is also a metaphor for the film theater and by extension for the filmic experience Duras rejected conventional forms of cinematic address that encourage the spectator to develop a positive identification with the film's diegesis and narrative Her films create unusual rapports between image and sound diegetic and extra diegetic elements and textual and intertextual dimensions of cinematic representation In doing so they allow the film spectator to establish new connections with the screen This collection focuses on the aesthetic conceptual and political challenges involved in Duras's innovative approach to cinematic representation from an interdisciplinary perspective including film and literary theory psychoanalytic analysis music theory gender studies and post colonial criticism The book opens with a theoretical introduction to Duras's cinematic practice and its peculiar position in contemporary cinema and contemporary film theory and is divided into five parts each one devoted to a specific aspect of Duras's films the interaction between literature and cinema Part One the reconfiguration of the cinematic gaze Part Two and of the image sound relation Part Three the representation of history and memory Part Four and of cultural identity Part Five
