The Decorative Arts of New Hampshire New Hampshire Historical Society,1973-01-01      The Decorative Arts of New Hampshire New Hampshire Historical Society,1973      American Furniture in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Frances Gruber Safford,2007 The Metropolitan Museum's preeminent collection of early colonial furniture is expertly documented in this long awaited publication It covers the full spectrum of furniture forms made during the 17th and early 18th centuries from chairs and other seating to tables boxes various types of chests and cupboards and desks Each of the 141 objects is thoroughly described with detailed information on provenance construction condition inscriptions dimensions and materials Photographed anew in color for this volume each piece is explicated in terms of the styles and craftsmanship of the period and is evaluated in light of comparative pieces in public and private collections throughout the country One appendix contains photographic details of construction and decorative elements and another has drawings of joints and moldings

The Decorative Arts of New Hampshire New Hampshire Historical Society,1973      The Decorative Arts of New Hampshire John F. Page,1973      American Furniture, 1620 to the Present Jonathan L. Fairbanks,Elizabeth Bidwell Bates,1981 Meant for both connoisseur and amateur this is the definitive book in its field During ten years of research the authors examined furniture from coast to coast in museums and private collections American Furniture has a running text along with its identification captions which places furniture in its social and historical context In its 100 color pictures and 1300 black and white photos the book frequently presents furniture in the rooms they were made for There is extensive coverage of the masterpieces from the seventeenth century to the present many of them newly photographed for this book but coverage is by no means restricted to these pieces This is the first book to encompass furniture away from the mainstream Pieces made away from the furniture centers of New York New England and Pennsylvania Thus there is discussion of the furniture of the Southwest furniture made in Dutch Spanish French and Norwegian settlements and furniture made in religious enclaves or as part of social or aesthetic reform movements Also line drawings reveal how antique furniture was made and therefore how to tell a genuine antique from a forgery From publisher description

Decorative Arts and Household Furnishings in America, 1650-1920 Kenneth L. Ames,Gerald W. R. Ward,1989 This bibliography of the study of household furnishings used in the United States from the seventeenth century to the early twentieth century contains twenty one sections Each section begins with an essay that outlines the development of scholarship in the files and points toward new directions for research with annotated entries on the most significant works Three chapters present the basic reference tools and surveys of art and architecture These are followed by chapters devoted to such topics as furniture metals including silver and gold pewter and Britannia metal ceramics and glass textiles timepieces household activities and systems and craftsmen and the Arts and Crafts Movement in America Includes an author title index
