The Decorative Tradition:

The Decorative Tradition Julian Barnard, 1974 Women Artists and the Decorative Arts 1880-1935 Bridget Elliott, Janice Helland, 2019-01-15 This title was first published in 2002 To date studies explaining decorative practice in the early modernist period have largely overlooked the work of women artists For the most part studies have focused on the denigration of decorative work by leading male artists frequently dismissed as fashionably feminine With few exceptions women have been cast as consumers rather than producers The first book to examine the decorative strategies of late nineteenth and early twentieth century women artists Women Artists and the Decorative Arts concentrates in particular on women artists who turned to fashion interior design and artisanal production as ways of critically engaging various aspects of modernity Women artists and designers played a vital role in developing a broad spectrum of modernist forms In these essays new light is shed on the practice of such well known women artists as May Morris Clarice Cliff Natacha Rambova Eileen Gray and Florine Stettheimer whose decorative practices are linked with a number of fascinating but lesser known figures such as Phoebe Traquair Mary Watts Gluck and Laura Nagy Wells' book on the culture of the chrysanthemum for exhibition, decoration, cut flower, and market William Wells, 1899 The Conservation of Decorated Surfaces on Earthen Architecture L. Rainer (ed.), Angelyn Bass Rivera, 2006 For millennia people of all cultures have decorated the surfaces of their domestic religious and public buildings Earthen architecture in particular has been and continues to be a common ground for surface decoration such as paintings sculpted bas relief and ornamental plasterwork This volume explores the complex issues associated with preserving these surfaces Case studies from Asia Europe Africa the Middle East and the Americas are presented The publication is the result of a colloquium held in 2004 at Mesa Verde National Park Colorado co organized by the Getty Conservation Institute GCI and the National Park Service NPS The meeting brought together fifty five conservators cultural resource managers materials scientists engineers architects archaeologists anthropologists and artists from eleven countries Divided into four themes Archaeological Sites Museum Practice Historic Buildings and Living Traditions the papers examine the conservation of decorated surfaces on earthen architecture within these different contexts Poetic Cinema and the Spirit of the Gift in the Films of Pabst, Parajanov, Kubrick and Ruiz Laleen Jayamanne, 2025-10-01 Poetic Cinema and the Spirit of the Gift in the Films of Pabst Parajanov Kubrick and Ruiz explores the poetic thinking of these master filmmakers It examines theoretical ideas including Maori anthropology of the gift and Sufi philosophy of the image to conceive film as abundant gift Elaborating on how this gift may be received this book imagines film as our indispensable mentor a wild mentor who teaches us how to think with moving images by learning to perceive evanescent forms that simply appear and disappear With Pleasure Anna Katz, 2019-01-01 A timely and expansive survey of a groundbreaking American art movement that overturned aesthetic hierarchies in a riot of color and ornamentation The Pattern and Decoration movement emerged in the 1970s as an embrace of long dismissed art forms associated with the decorative Pioneering artists such as Miriam Schapiro 1923 2015 Joyce Kozloff b 1942 Robert Kushner b 1949 and others appropriated patterns frequently from non Western decorative arts to produce intricate often dizzying or gaudy designs in media ranging from painting sculpture and collage to ceramics installation art and performance This dazzling book showcases an astonishing array of works by more than 40 artists from across the United States examining the movement's defiant adoption of art forms traditionally viewed as feminine craft based or otherwise inferior to fine art In addition to offering an overview of the Pattern and Decoration movement as it is commonly recognized this volume considers artists of the period who are not typically associated with the movement Rethinking the significance of patterns and the decorative in postwar American art this panoramic view provides new insights into abstraction feminism and installation art Essays explore the movement's feminist methods and values including Miriam Schapiro's femmage practice its impact on contemporary abstract painting and its relationship to postmodern architecture and design Artist biographies an exhibition history and reprints of historically significant writings further establish With Pleasure as the most expansive publication on the subject
