The Deposit Of Faith What The Catholic Church Rea:

Real Stories of Christian Initiation David Yamane, Sarah MacMillen, Kelly Culver, 2006 Relates real experiences from parishes that have used the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults in the Roman Catholic Church draws lessons for the church from these experiences Provided by publisher Essays on the Real Church Dirk J. Smit, 2024-08-15 The spirit of the Reformation is often expressed in the well known slogan that Reformed churches are always being reformed according to God's Word ecclesia reformata semper reformanda secundum verbum Dei Over the last century the spirit of this slogan motivated someone like Dietrich Bonhoeffer to argue that the visible form and life of the church should reflect the truth and message of the church Already in his doctoral dissertation called Sanctorum Communio the communion of the saints the young Bonhoeffer combined theological claims and traditions with social theory and analysis in this spirit in an innovative way to study the nature and integrity and witness of the church At the time this was a radical claim with major consequences and challenges for Protestant churches Their life which meant their order structure actions statements convictions public presence and role was to be measured by their gospel which meant their message proclamation convictions claims They could no longer proclaim one truth yet live a different life It was this spirit which led to the well known Theological Declaration of Barmen in 1934 and to the formation of the Confessing Church in Nazi Germany Many called this a moment of truth a status confessionis It was this same spirit which later inspired the struggle in South Africa for the integrity and faithfulness of the church and for the credibility of its message proclamation and witness The contributions in this volume 52 papers essays sermons studies were all produced in this spirit Most of them have not been published before They were all occasional pieces written over several decades in different contexts and for different purposes and audiences yet they all breathe this self critical spirit of the Reformation considering whether the real church the concrete every day actual living church that people know and experience and perhaps belong to truly strives to embody the gospel itself the message which it claims and proclaims They all inquire under different circumstances and in diverse ways about different social forms of the real church from worship to congregation from denomination to ecumenical church from individual believers to movements and organisations whether and how they embody the truth of the church or not Together these contributions tell a story the story of this spirit in South African circles over several decades but also in the ecumenical church in our globalizing world They offer one small glimpse into different concrete moments in the story of this spirit in the life of this tradition and community of faith Hopefully some of these accounts may resonate with others who also shared the same spirit and still share it today in new and ongoing ways The Deposit Of Faith Eugene Kevane, 2004 The Deposit of Faith What the Catholic Church Really Believes by Monsignor Eugene Kevane is a treasure of information for teachers of catechetical instruction In the wake of the Heresy of Modernism Catholics everywhere especially parents of Catholic children have experienced the proliferation of new opinions the exclusion of the Deposit of Faith and the suppression of the Catechism by religious educators This book portrays what Jesus Christ as God wanted the Apostles and through them the future members of His Church to know and teach He made it very clear Heaven and earth will pass away but my words will not pass away Mk 13 31 An earlier volume Jesus the Divine Teacher explains how Jesus taught this second one presents what he taught This book provides an opportunity for all Catholics and all religious people to review their own convictions and explore the depth of their spiritual lives In a special way the author presents in this volume the knowledge and information which can help bishops priests religious catechists parents and all the laity regain their equilibrium and rebuild their faith and spiritual lives It is an excellent tool to re examine one s own posture relative to the Deposit of Faith The Living Church ,1943 The real presence ... Second edition George Anthony DENISON,1855 The Library Magazine ,1886 A Dictionary of Christian Biography, Literature, Sects and Doctrines Sir William Smith,1882 Christian Faith and the Theological Life Romanus Cessario,1996 What does it mean to believe in God This question still provokes a recalcitrant world In spite of the apparent disinterest of our age the religious question continues to task and to vex sometimes quietly sometimes dramatically When religious divisions occasion civil strife believers are faced with an even more radical inquiry Wherein lies the real truth about Christian doctrine and its place in our lives Can we appeal to any authority for belief How do we escape the suspicions of a skeptical age In this book Romanus Cessario explores these questions and suggests responses taken from the history of theology He offers a readable account of the accumulated wisdom of the Christian tradition concerning the faith question citing as major authorities the saints those who have realized the will of God throughout the ages Faith supplies not only the assurance but also the substance of things hoped for The experience of Israel teaches that God has foreseen something better for us this something better resides in the Word of God that takes flesh in the womb of the Virgin Mary Because it keeps being born again in the heart of every believer as St Thomas Aquinas reminds us it leads us to the blessedness of eternal life Since the end of the Second Vatican Council in 1965 authors have dealt mainly with the existential dimensions of Christian life This volume the fruit of more than two decades of contemplation on the virtues of Christian life complements these as well as historical studies about faith It presents a coherent meditation on faith s principal concerns its acts of belief and confession and its character as a virtue in the Christian life Father Cessario explains how the mysteries of faith what the Christian believer professes each Sunday in the Creed transform our lives and make us living images of the Triune God Consequently this book will meet a wide range of needs by answering the questions of the informed reader animating study groups and parish seminars and stimulating the ordinary believer to appropriate the depth of the riches and the wisdom and knowledge of God ABOUT THE AUTHOR Romanus Cessario O P is professor of systematic theology at St John s Seminary in Brighton Massachusetts Before assuming this post in the fall of 1995 Father Cessario taught at the Dominican House of Studies in Washington D C He served there as Academic Dean from 1979 to 1987 He is the author of numerous works including The Moral Virtues and Theological Ethics Le Virtu and Perpetual Angelus As the Saints Pray the
