

The Dark Horizon

N Colangelo

The Dark Horizon:

The Dark Horizon Simon Hall, 2014-06-30 A television reporter is forced to turn detective in order to solve a bizarre riddle and try to prevent one of the worst terrorist atrocities Britain has ever known The young are set against the old today against tomorrow in a deadly battle between warring generations and conflicting visions for an uncertain future Written by a journalist with more than twenty years experience in the TV industry The Dark Horizon tackles one of the greatest scandals of our time and provides a new twist on the crime fiction genre with an insight into the subtle ways the police can use the media to help them crack crimes

The Dark Horizon Alexander Highlands, 1971 Doctor Who: Dark Horizons J.T. Colgan, 2012-07-05 We need to reach out We need to continue the line On a windswept northern shore the islanders believe the worst they have to fear is a Viking attack Then the burning comes Water will not stop it It consumes everything in its path yet the burned still speak The Doctor encounters a people under attack from a power they cannot possibly understand They have no weapons no strategy and no protection against a fire sent to engulf them all The islanders must take on a ruthless alien force in a world without technology but at least they have the Doctor on their side Don't they A thrilling adventure starring the Doctor as played by Matt Smith

Recovering Memory Hedda Friberg, Irene Gilsenan Nordin, Lene Yding Pedersen, 2009-03-26 Various ways of collecting storing and recovering memories have been the focus of the most recent joint research project carried out by a group of Irish Studies scholars all based in the Nordic countries and members of the Nordic Irish Studies Network NISN The result of the project Recovering Memory Irish Representations of Past and Present is a collection of essays which examines the theme of memory in Irish literature and culture against the theoretical background of the philosophical discourse of modernity Offering a wide range of perspectives this volume examines a plurality of representations past and present of memory both public and private and the intersection between collective memory and individual in modern Ireland Also explored is the relation between memory and identity national and private as well as questions of subjectivity and the construction of the self Given Ireland's tragic past and its long history of colonisation it is inevitable that various aspects of memory in terms of nationality post colonialism and politics also have bearing on this study The volume is divided into five sections each of which examines one broadly defined aspect of memory The introductory section focuses on memory and history and is followed by sections on memory and autobiography place identity and memory in the work of novelist John Banville Within each section the individual writers engage in a fruitful dialogue with each other and with the approaches of such theorists as Arendt Husserl Merleau Ponty Ricoeur and Baudrillard
