The Visitors' Book Jon Lys Turner,2016-06-09 Denis Wirth Miller and Dicky Chopping were a couple at the heart of the mid twentieth century art world with the visitors book of the Essex townhouse they shared from 1945 until 2008 painting them as Zelig's of British society The names recorded inside make up an astonishing supporting cast from Francis Bacon to Lucian Freud to Randolph Churchill to John Minton Successful artists although not household names themselves writing Dicky and Denis off as just footnotes in history would be a mistake After Denis's death in 2010 Jon Lys Turner one of two executors of the couple's estate came into possession of an extraordinary archive of letters works of art and symbolically loaded ephemera the two had collected since they met in the 1930s It is no exaggeration to state that this archive represents a missing link in British art history the wealth of new biographical information disclosed about Francis Bacon for example is truly staggering The Visitors Book is both an extraordinary insight into the minutiae of Dicky and Denis's life together and what it meant to be gay in pre Wolfenden Britain as well as a pocket social history of the era and a unique perspective into mid twentieth century art With reams of previously unseen material this is a fascinating and unique opportunity to delve into post war Britain Art Books, 1950-1979 R.R.
