The Insurance Critic, 1897 The Narratological Analysis of Lyric Poetry Peter Hühn, Jens Kiefer, 2005 This study offers a fresh approach to the theory and practice of poetry criticism from a narratological perspective Arguing that lyric poems share basic constituents of narration with prose fiction namely temporal sequentiality of events and verbal mediation the authors propose the transgeneric application of narratology to the poetic genre with the aim of utilizing the sophisticated framework of narratological categories for a more precise and complex modeling of the poetic text On this basis the study provides a new impetus to the neglected field of poetic theory as well as to methodology The practical value of such an approach is then demonstrated by detailed model analyses of canonical English poems from all major periods between the 16th and the 20th centuries The comparative discussion of these analyses draws general conclusions about the specifics of narrative structures in lyric poetry in contrast to prose fiction

Old English Poetry in Medieval Christian Perspective Judith N. Garde,1991 Dr Garde questions modern interpretations of the nature and purpose of Old English religious poetry In this doctrinal appraisal Dr Garde contends that English religious poetry in the early medieval age of faith was intended to convey conventional Christian teaching to unlearned audiences In this reading Old English religious verse is dominated by the Christus Victor tradition the exegetical perceptions often assumed in modern criticism are not justified The tradition of Christ s triumphant Descent into hell regarded as apocryphal by many critics is discussed in the context of the Resurrection and Christian expectations of eternal life in the Advent lyrics the Descent poems Christ II and Phoenix The Dream of the Rood Elene and Christ III are seen as describing Christ s Incarnation death Descent Resurrection and Ascension the Pentecostal phenomenon and the Church in the world Expectations of judgment the future resurrection of flesh and the prospect of eternal bliss for righteous Christians complete the credal sequence The author suggests that unstated wholly familiar perceptions of salvation in Christ underlie all Old English religious verse and that interpreters ignore these traditions at their peril JUDITH GARDE s published work includes contributions to the Journal of Literature and Theology and Neophilologus      A critical dictionary of English literature and British and American authors : living and deceased ; from the earliest accounts to the middle of the nineteenth century. 3 Samuel Austin Allibone,1871      American Notes and Queries William S.
