The Decline And Fall Of The Lettered City:

The Decline and Fall of the Lettered City Jean FRANCO, Jean Franco, 2009-06-30 The cultural Cold War in Latin America was waged as a war of values artistic freedom versus communitarianism Western values versus national cultures the autonomy of art versus a commitment to liberation struggles and at a time when the prestige of literature had never been higher The projects of the historic avant garde were revitalized by an anti capitalist ethos and envisaged as the opposite of the republican state The Decline and Fall of the Lettered City charts the conflicting universals of this period the clash between avant garde and political vanguard This was also a twilight of literature at the threshold of the great cultural revolution of the seventies and eighties a revolution to which the Cold War indirectly contributed In the eighties civil war and military rule together with the rapid development of mass culture and communication empires changed the political and cultural map A long awaited work by an eminent Latin Americanist widely read throughout the world this book will prove indispensable to anyone hoping to understand Latin American literature and society Jean Franco guides the reader across minefields of cultural debate and histories of highly polarized struggle Focusing on literary texts by Garc a Marquez Vargas Llosa Roa Bastos and Juan Carlos Onetti conducting us through this contested history with the authority of an eyewitness Franco gives us an engaging overview as involving as it is moving

Indianizing Film Freya Schiwy, 2009-04-22 Latin American indigenous media production has recently experienced a noticeable boom specifically in Bolivia Ecuador and Colombia Indianizing Film zooms in on a selection of award winning and widely influential fiction and docudrama shorts analyzing them in the wider context of indigenous media practices and debates over decolonizing knowledge Within this framework Freya Schiwy approaches questions of gender power and representation Schiwy argues that instead of solely creating entertainment through their work indigenous media activists are building communication networks that encourage interaction between diverse cultures As a result mainstream images are retooled permitting communities to strengthen their cultures and express their own visions of development and modernization Indianizing Film encourages readers to consider how indigenous media contributes to a wider understanding of decolonization and anticolonial study against the universal backdrop of the twenty first century

Beyond Civilization and Barbarism Brendan Lancot, 2013-12-12 Beyond Civilization and Barbarism examines how various cultural forms promoted competing political projects in Argentina during the decades following independence from Spain This turbulent period has long been characterized as a struggle between two irreconcilable forces the dictatorship of Juan Manuel de Rosas 1829 1852 versus a dissident intellectual elite Most famously Domingo Faustino Sarmiento described the conflict in his canonical Facundo 1845 as a clash between civilization and barbarism which has become a catchphrase for the experience of modernity throughout Latin America Against the grain of this durable script Beyond Civilization and Barbarism examines an extensive corpus to demonstrate how adversaries of the period used similar rhetorical strategies appealed to the same basic political ideals of republican government and were preoccupied with defining and interpellating the pueblo or people In other words their collective struggle was fundamentally modern and waged on a mutually intelligible discursive terrain      Cold War Literature Andrew Hammond,2006-11-22 This collection of essays analyzes the literary response to the coups insurgencies and invasions that took place around the globe during the Cold War and explores the thematic and stylistic trends in world writing prompted by Cold War hostilities      The Aesthetic Border Brantley Nicholson,2022-05-22 This groundbreaking study examines how modern Colombian literature from Gabriel Garc a M rquez to Juan Gabriel V squez reflects one of the world s most tumultuous entrances into globalization While these literary icons one canonical the other emergent bookend Colombia s fall and rise on the world stage the period between the two was inordinately violent spanning the Colombian urban novel s evolution into narco literature Marking Colombia s cultural and literary manifestations as threefold this book explores Garc a M rquez s retreat to a rural romanticism that paradoxically made him a global literary icon the country s violent end to the twentieth century when its largest economic export was narcotics and the contemporary period in which a new major author has emerged to create a literature of national reconstitution Harkening back to the Regeneration movement and extending through the early twenty first century this book analyzes the cultural implications of Colombia s relationship to the wider world      Itinerant Ideas Joanna Crow,2022-09-10 This book explores how ideas about race travelled across national borders in early twentieth century Latin America It builds on a vast array of scholarly works which underscore the highly contingent and flexible nature of race and racism in the region The framework of the nation state dominates much of this scholarship in part because of the important implications of ideas about race for state policies This book argues that we need to investigate the cross border elaboration of ideas that informed and fed into these policies It is organized around three key policy areas labour cultural heritage and education and focuses on conversations between Chilean and Peruvian intellectuals about the indigenous question Most historical scholarship on Chile and Peru draws attention to the wars fought in the nineteenth century and their long term consequences which reverberate to this day Relations between the two countries are therefore interpreted almost exclusively as antagonistic and hostile Itinerant Ideas challenges this dominant historical narrative      Contemporary Authors New Revision Series ,2003 A biographical and bibliographical guide to current writers in all fields including poetry fiction and nonfiction journalism drama television and movies Information is provided by the authors themselves or drawn from published interviews feature stories book reviews and other materials provided by the authors publishers

Consciousness Unto Itself Anna Christine Deeny,2009      Stanford Bulletin ,2003      Choice's Outstanding Academic Titles, 1998-2002 Rebecca Ann Bartlett,2003      Phantom Memories Isela Ocegueda,2010      Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2002      Literature and Subjection Horacio Legras,2008 Legras views the factors that have both formed and stifled the integration of peripheral experiences into Latin American literature He analyzes key works by novelists Juan Jose Saer The Witness Nellie Campobello Cartucho Roa Bastos Son of Man and Jose Maria Arguedas The Fox from Up Above and the

Fox from Down Below among others to provide a theoretical basis for understanding the plight of the author the peripheral voice and the confines of the literary medium

Latin America Juan Manuel Pérez,2004 This is a general bibliography on Latin America covering a wide variety of subjects from pre Columbian civilizations to Columbus to Castro to the foreign debt to pollution ect This work will not only be of use to the general casual reader on Latin America but also to the more specialized researcher The book contains over 800 topics with over 8 000 titles identified

The Literature of the Senses Aquiles Alencar Brayner,2009 This work highlights the importance given to corporeal perception in Noll s literature as the ground upon which one becomes conscious of oneself of the world and of others discussing also the way in which Noll s narrative places sensorial experiences at the very core of the aesthetic experience both as a foundational process upon which the writer becomes able to create his work as well as the medium through which the reader becomes invited to interpret from his own perceptual framework the story narrated The book pays also attention to the Brazilian socio political and cultural contexts of the 1970s 1980s and 1990s showing how Noll s literary production distances itself from and even criticises the popular and commercially successful documentary genre known as romance reportagem which used literature as a form of political propaganda

Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher Literatur ,2003

A Turbulent Decade Remembered Diana Sorensen,2007 A Turbulent Decade Remembered studies the 1960s the continental moment that marked Latin America s full entry into both modernity and post modernity in the international arena Delving into scenes of importance for the intersection of aesthetics and politics the book addresses the impact of the Cuban Revolution on the imagination of the decade the student movements of 1968 in their international context and the tragic events of Tlatelolco memorialized in different ways by Mexico s greatest intellectuals In examining the construction of the great novels usually identified as the Boom the book revises the critical tradition established since the late sixties rethinking the oft cited magical realism while considering the role of the press prizes gendered networks of solidarity and competition and the emergence of a literary star system The implications of all these forces of the republic of letters are set in dialogue with an analysis of the major novels of the decade with particular attention to their literary craft their manipulation of space voice and varied readerships
