and shifting depths of field Prager examines how the film simultaneously presents itself as a work of cinematic realism while problematically blurring the lines between fact and fiction While Cimino felt he had no responsibility to historical truth depicting a highly stylized version of his own fantasies about the Vietnam War Prager argues that The Deer Hunter s formal elements were used to bolster his troubling depictions of war and race Finally comparing the film with later depictions of US led intervention such as Albert and Allen Hughes s Dead Presidents 1995 and Spike Lee s Da Five Bloods 2000 Prager illuminates The Deer Hunter s major presumptions blind spots and omissions while also presenting a case for its classic status
