Gordon Byron Baron Byron,1884      The Deformed Transformed Lord Lord Byron,2015-07-19 As a dramatist Byron s function or metier was twofold In Manfred in Cain in Heaven and Earth he is concerned with the analysis and evolution of metaphysical or ethical notions in Marino Faliero in Sardanapalus and The Two Foscari he set himself to dramatize striking passages of history in The Deformed Transformed he sought to combine the solution of a metaphysical puzzle or problem the relation of personality to individuality with the scenic rendering of a striking historical episode the Sack of Rome in 1527 In the note or advertisement prefixed to the drama Byron acknowledges that the production is founded partly on the story of a forgotten novel The Three Brothers and partly on the Faust of the great Goethe Arnaud or Julian the hero of The Three Brothers sells his soul to the Devil and becomes an arch fiend in order to avenge himself for the taunts of strangers on the deformity of his person The idea of an escape from natural bonds or disabilities by supernatural means and at the price of the soul or will the un Christlike surrender to the tempter which is the grund stoff of the Faust legend was brought home to Byron in the first instance not by Goethe or Calderon or Marlowe but by Joshua Pickersgill      The Deformed Transformed, 1898      Deformed Transformed Lord Byron, 2005      Deformed Transformed George Gordon Byron Byron (Baron), 2005
