Dionysus and Apollo after Nihilism Carlos A. Segovia, Sofya Shaikut Segovia, 2023-02-17 This book recovers Dionysus and Apollo as the twin conceptual personae of life's dual rhythm in an attempt to redesign contemporary theory through the reciprocal affirmation of event and form, earth and world, dance and philosophy. It revisits Heidegger and Levin Strauss and combines them with Roy Wagner with the purpose of moving beyond Nietzsche's manifold legacy including post structuralism, new materialism and speculative realism. It asks whether merging philosophy and anthropology around issues of comparative ontologies may give us a chance to re-become earthbound dwellers on a re-worlded earth.

Theories of Local Economic Development James E.

Rowe,2016-12-05 In economic development theory and practice exist as two seemingly separate realities Academics strive to develop or refine theory by drawing on abstract concepts about the way people behave and institutions work while practitioners draw from a stock of experiences By bringing together leading theorists and practitioners such as Blakely Blair McCann Luger Gunder Stough and Stimson this book provides the first comprehensive overview of local economic development theories for over fifteen years It explores the theory behind the key concepts that every economic practitioner must understand and in doing so ties together the various theories from across the disciplines to practice Provoking

Art Simonetta Moro,2021-07-29 Mapping Paradigms in Modern and Contemporary Art defines a new cartographic aesthetic or what Simonetta Moro calls carto aesthetics as a key to interpreting specific phenomena in modern and contemporary art through the concept of poetic cartography The problem of mapping although indebted to the spatial turn of poststructuralist philosophy is reconstructed as hermeneutics while exposing the nexus between topology space time and memory The book posits that the emergence of mapping as a ubiquitous theme in contemporary art can be attributed to the power of the cartographic model to constitute multiple worldviews that can be seen as paradigmatic of the post modern and contemporary condition This book will be of particular interest to scholars in art history art theory aesthetics and cartography

Reimagining War in the 21st Century Manabrata Guha,2010-09-13 This book interrogates the philosophical backdrop of Clausewitzian notions of war and asks whether modern network centric militaries can still be said to serve the political In light of the emerging theories and doctrines of Network Centric War NCW this book traces the philosophical backdrop against which the more common theorizations of war and its conduct take place Tracing the historical and philosophical roots of modern war from the 17th Century through to the present day this book reveals that far from paralyzing the project of re problematising war the emergence of NCW affords us an opportunity to rethink war in new and philosophically challenging ways This book will be of much interest to students of critical security studies social theory war studies and political theory

Stretching Beyond the Horizon Jean Hillier, 2017-03-02 In this innovative work Jean Hillier develops a new theory for students and researchers of spatial planning and governance which is grounded primarily in the work of Gilles Deleuze. The theory recognizes the complex interrelation between place qualities and the multiple space time relational dynamics of spatial governance. Using empirical examples from England and Australia Hillier identifies the power of networks and trajectories through which various actors territorialize space and explores the social and political responsibilities of spatial managers and decision makers. She considers what spatial planning and urban management practices could look like if they were to be developed along Deleuzian lines and suggests alternative framings for spatial practice, broad trajectories or visions of the longer term future and shorter term location specific detailed plans and projects with collaboratively determined tangible goals.

Developing Place-responsive Pedagogy in Outdoor Environmental Education Alistair Stewart, 2020-02-25 This book is a rhizomatic curriculum autobiography that charts the author's efforts to develop and promote Australian outdoor environmental education practices that are inclusive of and responsive to the places in which they are performed. Joining philosophical concepts created by Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari with William Pinar's autobiographical method for curriculum inquiry, the author re-considers the interrelated concepts, contexts and complex conversations with colleagues, students and others that have shaped his approach to curriculum pedagogy and research for fifteen years or more. Emphasising the complexity of developing curricula and pedagogies that engage in a respectful and generative way with the natural and cultural history of the Australian continent, the author explicates and enacts his attempts to think differently about the cultural, curricular and pedagogical understandings that inform the practices of Australian outdoor environmental educators. Outdoor environmental education in Australia has historically been influenced by imported universalist ideas, particularly from the USA and the UK. However, during the last two decades, a growing number of researchers in this field have challenged the applicability of such taken-for-granted approaches and advocated the development of curricula and pedagogies informed by the unique bio-geographical and cultural histories of the locations in which educational experiences take place. As this book demonstrates, Alistair Stewart is prominent among the vanguard of Australian outdoor environmental educators who have led such advocacy by combining practical experience with theoretical rigour.
