The Gift Of A Memory:

The World of the Gift Jacques Godbout, Alain Caillé, 2000 Argues that despite the media lionization of corporate headloppers and ruthless investors the gift still constitutes the foundation of even our own society Describes the gift not as an object but as a social connection that creates an obligation to respond in kind Finds examples in blood and organ donation volunteer work bonds between friends and couples Santa Clause and the relationship between performer and audience and artist and society Originally published as L'Esprit du don by Les Editions La Decouverte and du Boreal in 1992 Canadian card order number C98 900801 0 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Reconciliation and Pedagogy Pal Ahluwalia, Stephen Atkinson, Peter Bishop, Pam Christie, Robert Hattam, Julie Matthews, 2012-05-16 Reconciliation is one of the most significant contemporary challenges in the world today In this innovative new volume educational academics and practitioners across a range of cultural and political contexts examine the links between reconciliation and critical pedagogy putting forward the notion that reconciliation projects should be regarded as public pedagogical interventions with much to offer to wider theories of learning While ideas about reconciliation are proliferating few scholarly accounts have focused on its pedagogies This book seeks to develop a generative theory that properly maps reconciliation processes and works out the pedagogical dimensions of new modes of narrating and listening and effecting social change The contributors build conceptual bridges between the scholarship of reconciliation studies and existing education and pedagogical literature bringing together the concepts of reconciliation and pedagogy into a dialogical encounter and evaluating how each might be of mutual benefit to the other theoretically and practically This study covers a broad range of territory including ethnographic accounts of reconciliation efforts practical implications of reconciliation matters for curricula and pedagogy in schools and universities and theoretical and philosophical considerations of reconciliation pedagogy It will be of great interest to students and scholars of peace and reconciliation studies educational studies and international relations

Monuments and Memory, Made and Unmade Robert S. Nelson, Margaret Olin, 2003 How do some monuments become so socially powerful that people seek to destroy them After ignoring monuments for years why must we now commemorate public trauma but not triumph with a monument To explore these and other questions Robert S Nelson and Margaret Olin assembled essays from leading scholars about how monuments have functioned throughout the world and how globalization has challenged Western notions of the monument Examining how monuments preserve memory these essays demonstrate how phenomena as diverse as ancient drum towers in China and ritual whale killings in the Pacific Northwest serve to represent and negotiate time Connecting that history to the present with an epilogue on the World Trade Center Monuments and Memory Made and Unmade is pertinent not only for art historians but for anyone interested in the turbulent history of monuments a history that is still very much with us today Contributors Stephen Bann Jonathan Bordo Julia Bryan Wilson Jas Elsner Tapati Guha Thakurta Robert S Nelson Margaret Olin Ruth B Phillips Mitchell Schwarzer Lillian Lan ying Tseng problems we need not more economic formulas but rather a better understanding of how the world is set up an ontology of how we and the world work Without this good proposals that arise lack political will and go unimplemented Pally describes our basic setup as separability amid situatedness or distinction amid relation Though we are all unique individuals we become our singular selves through our relations and responsibilities to the people and environments around us Pally argues that our culture s overemphasis on separability individualism run amok results in greed adversarial and deceitful political discourse and chicanery resource grabbing broken relationships and anomie Maintaining that separability and situatedness can and must be considered together in public policy Pally draws on intellectual history philosophy and especially historic Christian and Jewish theologies of relationality to construct a new framework for addressing present economic and political ills The Century ,1888
