

GLORY OF LOVE

Theme from KARATE KID PART II

Words and Music by DAVID FOSTER,
PETER CETERA and DIANE NINI

Slowly

With pedal

The image displays a piano score for the song 'Glory of Love'. It consists of four systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The first system includes the tempo marking 'Slowly' and the instruction 'With pedal'. The music is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The score features a variety of musical notations, including eighth and sixteenth notes, rests, and dynamic markings such as 'f' (forte) and 'mf' (mezzo-forte). The piece concludes with a double bar line at the end of the fourth system.

The Glory Of Love:

Peter Cetera: Glory of Love , Peter Cetera s voice is one of the most recognizable in popular music a tenor that carried Chicago from their ambitious jazz rock beginnings into global superstardom and later defined the romantic ballads of the 1980s Peter Cetera Chicago s Romantic Voice is the definitive biography of a musician who helped reshape the sound of modern pop balancing horn driven experimentation with melodic sincerity and emotional power Born in 1944 on Chicago s South Side Cetera grew up in a Polish American household where polka doo wop and Elvis Presley stirred his earliest musical curiosity By the 1960s he had discovered the electric bass honed his vocal chops in garage bands and earned his first real stage experience with The Exceptions one of the Midwest s most polished cover groups His trajectory changed forever in 1967 when he joined forces with Robert Lamm Terry Kath and James Pankow in a band first called Chicago Transit Authority Across the 1970s Cetera s role grew steadily his voice emerging from the ensemble into a defining feature His ballad If You Leave Me Now 1976 not only gave Chicago its first No 1 single but won two Grammy Awards repositioning the band on the global stage When guitarist Terry Kath s tragic death in 1978 shook the group to its core Cetera s voice provided continuity and resilience By the 1980s working with producer David Foster he propelled Chicago into a new era with Hard to Say I m Sorry You re the Inspiration and the band s best selling album Chicago 17 Yet Cetera s growing prominence also magnified tensions His ballads dominated airwaves while bandmates bristled at the loss of jazz rock complexity In 1985 weary of touring and eager to prioritize family he left the group at the height of their success His gamble paid off almost immediately As a solo artist he reached No 1 again with Glory of Love the anthem of The Karate Kid Part II followed by a string of adult contemporary hits including his duet with Amy Grant The Next Time I Fall This biography traces the full arc of Cetera s career the grind of early tours the peak of stadium fame the intimate solo years and the careful balance of family life and selective performances It explores the cultural context of his music the critical debates over Chicago s direction and the enduring resonance of his ballads Drawing from archival detail press accounts and historical context it paints a portrait of an artist who defined sincerity in an era of spectacle Cetera s story is not just about hits and tours it is about a man who chose autonomy over compromise intimacy over exhaustion and left behind a catalog that continues to inspire singers and audiences alike His romantic balladry once divisive among critics now stands as a timeless expression of love vulnerability and melodic clarity For fans of Chicago for students of pop history and for anyone moved by the power of a voice to capture the complexity of love Peter Cetera Chicago s Romantic Voice offers the definitive account of a singer who remains one of the great interpreters of emotion in modern music 250 word Back Cover Description Peter Cetera s voice defined an era From the soaring ballads that carried Chicago to the top of the charts in the 1970s to his solo hits like Glory of Love and The Next Time I Fall Cetera became the romantic tenor of a generation His journey however was never simple Peter Cetera Chicago s Romantic Voice tells the full story of a musician who bridged experimentation and accessibility jazz rock and pop spectacle and sincerity Born in Chicago in 1944 Cetera grew from neighborhood garage bands into the founding lineup of Chicago Transit Authority Across the next two decades his voice emerged as both the glue and the fault line within one of America's most successful rock groups When internal tensions and relentless touring pushed him to leave in 1985 he risked everything only to return to the top of the charts as a solo artist This book traces every step the grind of early tours the tragedy of Terry Kath's death the reinvention with David Foster the solo triumphs and the eventual retreat into a life shaped by family priorities rather than industry demands It is both a cultural history and an intimate portrait written with the narrative drive of a documentary and the rigor of archival research     The Glory of God's Light: Connect with God Through His Light, Love, and Word Brother Raymond, 2020-05-19 Darkness represents anything that is inconsistent with God's nature character and manifestation It appears humanity has lost its connection with God but finding a relationship with God can bring us into the light of His love In The Glory of God's Light Brother Raymond shows how to have a relationship with God through His Light His Love and His Word Brother Raymond digs deeper into Scripture and takes examples from his own life to show how God's light is present in every circumstance and points those in darkness into the glory of God's light Could you relish a great relationship with God our Heavenly Father Yes you can     *The Glory of Christ and the Church ...
