Dooley David Joseph Dooley,1967      Work of Art Sinclair Lewis,2023-10-01 Myron Weagle rises from the bottom to become manager of one of the largest hotels in the world      Work of Art Sinclair Lewis,1962      Sinclair Lewis Reeta Subhash Harode,2014      Scenes from the American Working Class Steven Michels,2024-12-15 The twelve chapters of Scenes from the American Working Class This Hard Land use the lens of political theory to explore the working life of Americans as it has been depicted in popular culture It covers a wide range of experiences and voices from the past hundred plus years      Evangelicals and the Arts in Fiction John Weaver,2013-04-19 This book is an exploration of how the relationship of evangelicals to the arts has been portrayed in fiction for the last century The author argues that evangelicals are consistently seen as enemies of the arts by non evangelical writers The artist typically represented by a literal artist occasionally by a scientist or reluctant messiah typically has to fight for liberation from such cliched character types as the failed evangelical artist the rube or the hypocritical pastor Rather than resist the cliché of anti art evangelicalism the book contends that evangelicals should embrace it this stereotype is only hurtful so long as one assumes that the arts represent a positive force in human society This work built off the scholarship of John Carey does not make that assumption Surveying the current pro artistic views of most evangelicals the author advances the argument that evangelicals need to return to their anti art roots By doing so they would align themselves with the most radical artistic elements of modernism rather than with the classicists that the movement currently seems to prefer and provide space for themselves to critique how secular artistic stereotypes of evangelicals have economically and artistically marginalized the evangelicals community      Dictionary of Midwestern Literature, Volume Two Philip A. of art and that even when writing about the past she was often addressing contemporary questions The essays in this volume are informed by new modes of contextualization including the increasingly popular view of Cather as a pivotal or transitional figure working between and across very different cultural periods and by the recent publication of Cather's correspondence The collection begins by exploring the ways Cather encountered and represented high and low cultures including Cather's use of racialized vernacular in Sapphira and the Slave Girl The next set of essays demonstrates how historical research often focusing on local features in Cather's fiction contributes to our understanding of American culture from musicological sources to the cultural development of Pittsburgh The final trio of essays highlights current Cather scholarship including a food studies approach to O Pioneers and an examination of Cather's use of ancient philosophy in The Professor's House Together the essays reassess Cather's lifelong encounter with and interpretation and reimagining of the arts
