Reel Bay Jana Larson, 2021-01-19 What was Takako Konishi really doing in North Dakota and why did she end up dead Did she get lost and freeze to death as the police concluded while searching for the fictional treasure buried in a snowbank at the end of the Coen Brothers film Fargo Or was it something else that brought her there unrequited love ritual suicide a meteor shower a far flung search for purpose The seed of an obsession took root in struggling film student Jana Larson when she chanced upon a news bulletin about the case Over the years and across continents the material Jana gathered in her search for the real Takako outgrew multiple attempts at screenplays and became this remarkable genre bending essay that leans into the space between fact and fiction life and death author and subject reality and delusion

Legendary Locals of Huntington Beach Chris Epting, 2015-03-02 For over 100 years Huntington Beach aka Surf City USA has come to represent the true beach culture of Southern California Originally called Pacific City it was when railroad magnate Henry Huntington first ran his train line down in 1904 from Los Angeles approximately 40 miles north that the then quaint beach town took on the name that made it famous around the state and around the world In 1914 the legendary George Freeth put on a surfing exhibition the day the city's vaunted concrete pier was opened which christened Huntington Beach as a soon to be surfing mecca It became a boomtown after oil was discovered in 1920 and several decades later morphed once again into a cradle of aerospace engineering when companies such as Boeing arrived Throughout its tumultuous and dramatic history Huntington Beach has always boasted a cast of colorful and profound characters From the first mayor Ed Manning to Medal of Honor recipient Chris Carr from the Zamboni family who invented the ice cleaning machine to baseball star Jeff Kent the list is almost endless But it is not just professional athletes actors and rock stars it is the teachers crossing guards merchants and activists that give Huntington Beach its well earned reputation as one of the most interesting and charismatic cities in the state Whalewatcher ,1990
