The Ascent of Life Thomas A. Goudge,1967      The Unitarian Jabez Thomas Sunderland,Brooke Herford,Frederick B. Mott,1895      The Newberry House Magazine ,1893      The Teleology of Action in Plato's Republic Andrew Payne,2017-10-06 In many discussions of ancient philosophy teleology is acknowledged as an important theme How do we act for a particular end or purpose One common answer describes humans as acting with the intention of achieving a goal A person selects particular actions with the thought that these actions will lead to that goal Andrew Payne accepts that this is one good answer to our question but proposes that it is not the only one In Plato s Republic Socrates appeals to a different understanding of how humans act for the sake of ends as they live together in political communities and pursue knowledge As they carry out activities that are necessary for human flourishing their actions can produce unintended results that signal the full completion of human capacities For example performing the actions of a just individual can help promote the establishment of a just society as an unintended result Such unintended results qualify as ends or purposes of human action This volume fully explores this functional teleology of action in Plato s Republic      The Arena ,1893      The Living Church ,1894      Studies in the Poetry of Robert Browning James Fotheringham,1888      Mind ,1905      Geology for General Readers David Page,1870      Harper's Hand-book for Travellers in Europe and the East William Pembroke Fetridge,1870      The Life of Luisa de Carvajal Georgiana Fullerton,1881      The Expositor Samuel Cox,Sir William Robertson Nicoll,James Moffatt,1894      The Altruistic Review ,1894      The Anglican Pulpit Library ,1900      The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1894      The Philosophy of (erotic) Love Robert C. Solomon,Kathleen Marie Higgins,1991 Solomon and Higgins have chosen excerpts from the great philosophical texts and combined them with the most exciting new work of philosophers writing today It examines the mysteries of erotic love from a variety of philosophical perspectives and provides an impressive display of wisdom that the world s best thinkers have brought and continue to bring to the study of love      A Story of the Soul's Journey in the Nag Hammadi Library Ulla Tervahauta,2015-08-19 Authentikos Logos NHC VI 3 also known as Authoritative Teaching is a little studied story of a soul s descent and ascent in the Nag Hammadi library With her book Ulla Tervahauta fills a gap in the scholarship and provide the first monograph length study that has this writingas its primary focus The aim is to find a place and context for Authentikos Logos within early Christianity but Tervahauta also adds new insight into the scholarship of the Nag Hammadi Library and study of early Christianity Contrary to the usual discussion of the Nag Hammadi writings from the viewpoint of Gnostic studies she argues that Authentikos Logos is best approached from the context of Christian traditions of late ancient Egypt between the third and the fifth centuries Tervahauta discusses the story of the soul s journey in light of various Christian and Platonic writings Also she analyses the relationship of Authentikos Logos with the Valentinian Wisdom myth and suggests that no firm evidence connects the writing closely with Valentinian traditions And although a Platonic mind set can be assumed the writing combines motifs in a unique manner For example the four epithets used in the writing the invisible soul the pneumatic soul the material soul and the rational soul are not found thus combined elsewhere Discussion of matter hyle is connected with Christian scriptural allusions and the focus is on ethics and the evilness of matter The body on the other hand is the soul s place of contest and progress The Pauline term pneumatic body 1 Cor 15 44 is used allusively and from a Platonic perspective With this book Ulla Tervahauta makes an important contribution to the study of early Christianity in late ancient Egypt by discussing a writing thatshows knowledge and creative combination of literary traditions that circulated in late ancient Egypt
