The Autobiographical Documentary In America Wisconsin Studies In Autobiography:

The Autobiographical Documentary in America Jim Lane, 2002-04-29 Since the late 1960s American film and video makers of all genres have been fascinated with themes of self and identity Though the documentary form is most often used to capture the lives of others Jim Lane turns his lens on those media makers who document their own lives and identities He looks at the ways in which autobiographical documentaries including Roger and Me Sherman's March and Silverlake Life raise weighty questions about American cultural life What is the role of women in society What does it mean to die from AIDS How do race and class play out in our personal lives What does it mean to be a member of a family Examining the history diversity and theoretical underpinnings of this increasingly popular documentary form Lane tracks a fundamental transformation of notions of both autobiography and documentary

Edmund Goulding's Dark Victory Matthew Kennedy, 2004 At the dawn of sound he wrote the story for the Academy Award winning musical The Broadway Melody and collaborated memorably with Gloria Swanson and Joseph Kennedy for The Trespasser He excelled at anti war drama White Banners The Dawn Patrol We Are Not Alone fantastic Bette Davis weepies Dark Victory The Old Maid The Great Lie lilting romantic dramas The Constant Nymph Claudia big budgeted literary adaptations The Razor's Edge and even film noir Nightmare Alley

From the Tourist's Gaze Pietro Agnoletto, 2025-06-27 From the Tourist's Gaze bridges environmental humanities and amateur cinema studies exploring tourism induced environmental issues through the visual representations created by tourists themselves The protagonists of the book are families from North West Italy and their holiday films captured during their holidays in the Ligurian Riviera The timeframe spans between the 1950s and 1970s the so called Italian economic miracle a period in which Italy experienced an extraordinary and rapid economic growth and consequentially a rise in living standards including tourism and film cameras accessibility Radical environmental transformations such as the industrialization and cementing of spaces or the conversion of entire coastlines into territories equipped to receive masses of tourists were just one of the consequences studied from a myriad of sources but never through amateur films The most illustrative case is the Ligurian Riviera which has been regarded as an example of land consumption since those contemporary years Despite being centered on a specific case study readers will be equipped with practical tools to enhance their study of historical amateur films These tools are introduced through innovative methodological approaches to archival research and visual analysis The results will highlight the visual imagery of mid 20th century tourists and their perspectives on the destinations they visited offering fresh visually oriented insights that contribute to the field of tourism studies As a visual journey through mid 20th century Italian tourism and its environmental narratives it may interest cultural geographers tourism and media scholars and the broader group of environmental humanists the latter will have the opportunity to explore amateur cinema as an untapped resource for understanding cultural narratives while amateur cinema scholars will have an example of a fresh and different approach to their subject It can also give new insights to archivists specialized in home movies and be appealing to scholars and intellectuals interested in these topics Rethinking Identities Across Boundaries Claudia Capancioni, Mariaconcetta Costantini, Mara Mattosco, 2023-11-22 This collection of essays aims to widen the current critique on borders by examining their entanglements with constructions of identity and disciplinary categories In particular it calls into question established models of gender notions of narrative genres and typological genera of borders in today's literary artistic philosophical and socio political discourse The chapters interrogate boundaries and boundary crossing not only in terms of geographical frontiers and the physical acts of trespassing but also as discursive constructs that police crossing subjects as gendered subjects on the one hand and identify artistic genres and academic disciplines as fixed sealed in ways of understanding the world on the other Taking inspiration from the multiple meanings of the Italian word genere which stands for gender genre and typology genus simultaneously the volume reflects on the gendered narrative and typological nature of borders and border imagery and on the significance and potentialities of crossover phenomena taking place in borderlands in the fields of arts literature anthropology sociology and philosophy

The Documentary Film Book Brian Winston, 2019-07-25 Powerfully posing questions of ethics ideology authorship and form documentary film has never been more popular than it is today Edited by one of the leading British authorities in the field The Documentary Film Book is an essential guide to current thinking on documentary film In a series of fascinating essays key international experts discuss the theory of documentary outline current understandings of its history from pre Flaherty to the post Griersonian world of digital i Docs survey documentary production from Africa to Europe and from the Americas to Asia consider documentaries by marginalised minority communities and assess its contribution to other disciplines and arts Brought together here in one volume these scholars offer compelling evidence as to why over the last few decades documentary has come to the centre of screen studies Mediating Memory Bunty Avieson, Fiona Giles, Sue Joseph, 2017-10-16 The argument has been made that memoir reflects and augments the narcissistic tendencies of our neo liberal age Mediating Memory Tracing the Limits of Memoir challenges and dismantles that assumption Focusing on the history theory and practice of memoir writing editors Bunty Avieson Fiona Giles and Sue Joseph provide a thorough and cutting edge examination of memoir through the lenses of ethics practice and innovation By investigating memoir across cultural boundaries in its various guises and tracing its limits the editors convincingly demonstrate the plurality of ways in which memoir is helping us make sense of who we are who we were and the influences that shape us along the way

International Documentary, 2004 Ferocious Reality Eric Ames, 2012-10-17 Over the course of his career Werner Herzog known for such visionary masterpieces as Aguirre The Wrath of God 1972 and The Enigma of Kaspar Hauser 1974 has directed almost sixty films roughly half of which are documentaries And yet in a statement delivered during a public appearance in 1999 the filmmaker declared There are deeper strata of truth in cinema and there is such a thing as poetic ecstatic truth It is mysterious and elusive and can be reached only through fabrication and imagination and stylization

Ferocious Reality is the first book to ask how this conviction so hostile to the traditional tenets of documentary can inform the work of one of the world's most provocative documentarians Herzog whose Cave of Forgotten Dreams was perhaps the most celebrated documentary of 2010 may be the most influential filmmaker missing from major studies and histories of documentary Examining such notable films as Lessons of Darkness 1992 and Grizzly Man 2005 Eric Ames shows how Herzog dismisses documentary as a mode of filmmaking in order to creatively intervene and participate in it In close contextualized analysis of more than twenty five films spanning Herzog's career Ames makes a case for exploring documentary films in terms of performance and explains what it means to do so Thus his book expands the field of cinema studies even as it offers an invaluable new perspective on a little studied but integral part of Werner Herzog's extraordinary oeuvre
