The Augustan Villa At Boscotrecase:

The Augustan Villa at Boscotrecase Peter Heinrich von Blanckenhagen, Christine Alexander, Joan R. Mertens, Christel Faltermeir, 1990 The Cambridge Companion to the Age of Augustus Karl Galinsky, 2005-10-10 The age of Augustus commonly dated to 30 BC AD 14 was a pivotal period in world history A time of tremendous change in Rome Italy and throughout the Mediterranean world many developments were underway when Augustus took charge and a recurring theme is the role that he played in shaping their direction The Cambridge Companion to the Age of Augustus captures the dynamics and richness of this era by examining important aspects of political and social history religion literature and art and architecture Painting, Poetry, and the Invention of Tenderness in the Early Roman Empire Hérica Valladares, 2020-12-17 Tenderness is not a notion commonly associated with the Romans whose mythical origin was attributed to brutal rape Yet as H rica Valladares argues in this ground breaking study in the second half of the first century BCE Roman poets artists and their audience became increasingly interested in describing depicting and visualizing the more sentimental aspects of amatory experience During this period we see two important and simultaneous developments Latin love elegy crystallizes as a poetic genre while a new style in Roman wall painting emerges Valladares book is the first to correlate these two phenomena properly showing that they are deeply intertwined Rather than postulating a direct correspondence between images and texts she offers a series of mutually reinforcing readings of painting and poetry that ultimately locate the invention of a new romantic ideal within early imperial debates about domesticity and the role of citizens in Roman society Art of the Classical World in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Carlos A.
