Lyotard and the Inhuman Condition Ashley Woodward, 2016-01-31 No detailed description available for Lyotard and the Inhuman Condition

The Demise of the Inhuman Ana Monteiro-Ferreira, 2014-05-29 Employs a critical Afrocentric reading of Western constructions of knowledge so as to overcome the dehumanizing tendencies of modernity Winner of the 2015 Best Scholarly Book Award presented by the Diopian Institute for Scholarly Advancement Afrocentricity is the most intellectually dominant idea in the African world one that is having a growing impact on social science discourse This paradigm philosophically rooted in African cultures and values fundamentally challenges major epistemological traditions in Western thought such as modernism and postmodernism Marxism existentialism feminism and postcolonialism In The Demise of the Inhuman Ana Monteiro Ferreira reviews what Molefi Kete Asante has called the infrastructures of dominance and privilege arguing that Western concepts such as individualism colonialism race and ethnicity universalism and progress are insufficient to overcome various forms of oppression Afrocentricity she argues can help lead us beyond Western structures of thought that have held sway since the early fifteenth century towards a new epistemological framework that will enable a more human humanity

Henry Miller James M. Decker, Indrek Männiste, 2015-04-23 Scholarly responses to Henry Miller's works have never been numerous and for many years Miller was not a fashionable writer for literary studies In fact there exist only three collections of essays concerning Henry Miller's oeuvre Since these books appeared a new generation of international Miller scholars has emerged one that is re-energizing critical readings of this important American Modernist Henry Miller New Perspectives presents new essays on carefully chosen themes within Miller and his intellectual heritage to form the most authoritative collection ever published on this author

The Posthuman Condition in 21st Century Literature and Culture María Ferrández-Sanmiguel, Esther Muñoz-González, Carmen Laguarda-Bueno, 2025-06-18 More than a decade after its first definitions critical posthumanism has become consolidated as a key discourse for the understanding of our contemporary state of being within what has been called the paradigm of posthumanity but also crucially as an ideology and a praxis that guides our engagements with the world around us This double dimension characterizes the contributions to this volume They resort to critical posthumanism in its most recent developments as a set of tools for critical and cultural analysis of our posthuman times as posthumanist concerns manifest in our cultural products This volume studies the most recent evolutions in the field of critical posthumanism as represented in key novels and other screened popular cultural products produced in the first and second decades of the twenty-first century Resorting to the analytical tools provided by critical posthumanist theory in cross-disciplinary dialogue with other fields such as transhumanism feminist gender and queer theory vulnerability studies new materialism critical animal studies and environmental theory the scholars whose work this volume showcases bear witness to how literature and popular culture have been influenced and impressed by posthumanism Chapters 1 5 7 8 and 12 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via
