The Desert Generals Correlli Barnett,2011-07-14 A classic account of the Desert Campaign of 1940 43 by a renowned military historian The distinguished historian Correlli Barnett gives here a complete and full account of the Desert Campaign 1940 43 an epic story set in a wasteland where soldiers fought for victory in a tumult of mechanical warfare But THE DESERT GENERALS is also the story of five men under the strain of command in battle the commanders who successively led the Allied forces against first the Italians and then the Germans in the ebb and flow of the desert war culminating in the myth of Montgomery and the battle of Alamein a myth that Correlli Barnett sets out to expose as ill founded Brilliantly written THE DESERT GENERALS captures at every level the intensity and human drama of a unique and compelling episode in the history of war and warfare

Advance Britannia Alan Allport,2025-11-06 By 1942 Churchill faced a vastly different war than the one he had inherited from Neville Chamberlain Britain was no longer alone the Soviets were now an unlikely ally in the East and Pearl Harbor had finally pushed America into action Yet the scale of violence remained unchanged On average seven British men women and children were killed every hour of the Second World War The country would never be the same again In Advance Britannia historian Alan Allport reveals the war as it was lived from the battlefields to the ration books in the War Ministry and in the air raid shelters Mixing social history with dramatic storytelling this is a definitive account of the war that reshaped the world

Operations United States. Department of the Army,1976 Rommel's Desert Commanders Samuel W. Mitcham Jr.,2007-02-28 Perhaps the most famous and admired soldier to fight in World War II was Field Marshal Erwin Rommel who achieved immortality as the Desert Fox Rommel's first field command during the war was the 7th Panzer Division also known as the Ghost Division which he led in France in 1940 During this campaign the 7th Panzer suffered more casualties than any other division in the German Army at the same time inflicting a disproportionate number of casualties upon the enemy It took 97 486 prisoners captured 458 tanks and armored vehicles 277 field guns 64 anti tank guns and 4 000 to 5 000 trucks It captured or destroyed hundreds of tons of other military equipment shot down 52 aircraft destroyed 15 more aircraft on the ground and captured 12 additional planes It destroyed the French 1st Armored Division and the 4th North African Division punched through the Maginot Line extension near Sivry and checked the largest Allied counteroffensive of the campaign at Arras When France surrendered the Ghost Division was within 200 miles of the Spanish border No doubt about it Rommel had proven himself a great military leader who was capable of greater things His next command in fact would be the Afrika Korps where the legend of the Desert Fox was born Rommel had a great deal of help in France much more than his published papers suggest His staff officers and company battalion and regimental commanders were an extremely capable collection of military leaders that included 12 future generals two of them SS and two colonels who briefly commanded panzer divisions but never reached general rank They also included Colonel Erich von Unger who would no doubt have become a general had he not been killed in action while commanding a motorized rifle brigade on the Eastern Front in 1941 as well as Karl Hanke a Nazi gauleiter who later succeeded Heinrich Himmler as the last Reichsfuehrer SS No historian has ever recognized the talented cast of characters who supported the Desert Fox in 1940 No one has ever attempted to tell their stories This book remedies that deficiency
