Speaking A New Classicism American Architecture Now:

American Architects and Texts Juan Pablo Bonta, 1996 In this volume the author analyzes 400 architectural books and articles published over the past 150 years to reveal changing societal preferences in architecture and to measure the reputations of individual architects the text includes a ranked list of the 100 most famous architects

Speaking a New Classicism Helen Searing, Museum of Art, 1981

The New Paradigm in Architecture Charles Jencks, 2002-01-01 This book explores the broad issue of Postmodernism and tells the story of the movement that has changed the face of architecture over the last forty years In this completely rewritten edition of his seminal work Charles Jencks brings the history of architecture up to date and shows how demands for a new and complex architecture aided by computer design have led to more convivial sensuous and articulate buildings around the world

Speaking a New Classicism Helen Searing, 1981-12-01

A Field Guide to Contemporary American Architecture Carole Rifkind, 2001 Leading urbanist Carole Rifkind takes readers on an illuminating tour through half a century of design in this comprehensive and lavishly illustrated book From private homes and public housing to museums religious and educational edifices shopping centers malls and office buildings the accessible text demonstrates the interplay between form and function and how the uses of space mass materials and ornament have evolved to produce the structures that surround us today Rifkind also discusses the development of style and analyzes the contributions of more than two hundred architects as well as the political and economic forces that influenced their work Filled with over four hundred photographs and line drawings A Field Guide to Contemporary American Architecture is an essential reference for both casual observers and serious scholars Its in depth exploration of the postwar intellectual social and artistic environment offers a unique perspective on our recent past and the forces that shape our modern landscape

Thomas Gordon Smith and the Rebirth of Classical Architecture Richard John, 2001 For the past two decades Thomas Gordon Smith has played a central role in the revival of classicism in contemporary architecture in America His conviction in the enduring relevance of this tradition to contemporary life has resulted in buildings which in terms of materials and function are just as much a product of the modern world as a high tech office building but in addition to admirably fulfilling the job for which they were intended they also have the rare quality of engaging us intellectually This extensively illustrated monograph presents Thomas Gordon Smith's buildings and projects for the first time A biographical essay explores the polymathic range of his other activities including his influential role as an educator commentator on Vitruvius historian of the Greek Revival painter of frescoes and designer and collector of furniture

The Language of Post-modern Architecture Charles Jencks, 1991 A classic account which when written in 1977 was the first to define post modernism in architecture an event which led to subsequent adoption of the term in many other fields It is the story of the failure of modern architecture to communicate with its users and the attempt of post modernists to overcome this failure with a richer more widely shared language post modern classicism This edition 5th in 1987 brings the account and the great illustrations up to date 101 4x121
