Speaking Out On Work:

Speaking Out Linde Zingaro, 2017-03-02 Many professionals in health education and community service roles are caught in a particular bind of identity they live in a complex social borderland of credibility and professional authority while experiencing or having experienced the same discrimination violence or trauma that they are committed to conquering For some the disclosure of their own stories of marginalization has become a tool for advocacy for telling a larger truth for others self disclosure is a more personal action intended to assist isolated others in developing trust and connection Linde Zingaro a lifelong social service worker and activist interviewed several colleagues who have chosen to speak out in this way talking with them about their ethics and intentions and collaborating to identify some of the risks of negative personal and professional consequences for the practitioner She uses their voices and her own to illustrate some of the ways that these people have learned to safely and effectively use the transformative potential of storytelling as significant social action This examination of speaking out as a meaningful social practice may help other workers activists and community researchers in their efforts to be heard in the interests of a more just society Speaking Out of Turn Stephanie Sparling

Williams, 2021-08-24 Speaking Out of Turn is the first monograph dedicated to the forty year oeuvre of feminist conceptual artist Lorraine O Grady Examining O Grady s use of language both written and spoken Stephanie Sparling Williams charts the artist s strategic use of direct address the dialectic posture her art takes in relationship to its viewers to trouble the field of vision and claim a voice in the late 1970s through the 1990s when her voice was seen as out of turn in the art world Speaking Out of Turn situates O Grady s significant contributions within the history of American conceptualism and performance art while also attending to the work s heightened visibility in the contemporary moment revealing both the marginalization of O Grady in the past and an urgent need to revisit her art in the present Upon Waking: 58 Voices

Speaking Out From the Shadow of Abuse Annette Gagliardi, Laura Kozy Lanik, 2019 Upon Waking 58 Voices Speaking Out From the Shadow of Abuse is the culmination of the Let s Talk About It Poetry Project created by Annette Gagliardi and Laura Kozy Lanik and represents the work of 58 poets from around the state and the country and Canada Whether we have had first hand experiences or not the subject of abuse shapes the world we are in It is our hope that the many victims of abuse can find solace within these pages or that their voice is echoed in one or more of these poems Even if you are not a victim of abuse these poems help us become more aware of the atrocities told and untold that happen daily and make us more empathetic to the long healing process of survivors Social Context Reform Paul Thomas, Brad J. Porfilio, Julie Gorlewski, Paul R. Carr, 2014-06-20 Currently both the status quo of public education and the No Excuses Reform policies are identical The reform offers a popular and compelling narrative based on the meritocracy and rugged individualism myths that are supposed to define American idealism This volume will refute this ideology by proposing Social Context Reform a term coined by Paul Thomas which argues for educational change within a larger plan to reform social inequity such as access to health care food higher employment better wages and job security Since the accountability era in the early 1980s policy public discourse media coverage and scholarly works have focused primarily on reforming schools themselves Here the evidence that school only reform does not work is combined with a bold argument to expand the discourse and policy surrounding education reform to include how social school and classroom reform must work in unison to achieve goals of democracy equity and opportunity both in and through public education This volume will include a wide variety of essays from leading critical scholars addressing the complex elements of social context reform all of which address the need to re conceptualize accountability and to seek equity and opportunity in social and education reform Why Work Michael
