

Sound of Sunshine, Sound of Rain

Florence Parr, Heide

288

Part One

It must be morning, for I hear the morning cooing.

I have been dreaming of a sound that whispers Follow me, Follow me, but not in words. I follow the sound up and up until I feel I am floating in the air.

Now I am awake, and I listen to the voices.
My mother's voice is as warm and soft as a pillow.

My sister's voice is little and sharp and high,
like needles flying in the air.

I do not listen to the words but to the sound, low, high, low, high, soft, hard, soft, hard, and then the sounds coming together at the same time and making a new sound. And with it all, the sharp sounds of my sister's heels putting holes in what I hear.

Then I hear the clattering of kitchen drawers and the banging of pans, and there is no more talking.
