Procedure and Evidence in International Arbitration Jeffrey Waincymer, 2012-05-23 Central to the book's purpose is the procedural challenge facing arbitrators at each and every stage of the arbitral process when fairness arguments conflict with efficiency concerns and trade offs must be determined. Some key themes include how can a tribunal be fair and in particular be neutral if parties are so diverse. How can arbitration be made efficient and cost effective without undue inroads into fairness and accuracy. How does a tribunal do what is best if the parties are choosing a suboptimal process. When can or must an arbitrator ignore procedural choices made by the parties. The author thoroughly evaluates competing arguments and adds his own practical tips expertly synthesizing and engaging with the conference literature and differing authors' views. He identifies criteria that offer a harmonized approach to each stage of the arbitral process with particular attention to such aspects of international arbitration as appropriate trade offs between flexibility and certainty, the rights, duties and powers of arbitrators, appointment and challenge of arbitrators, responses to guerilla tactics, drafting of arbitration agreements including specialty clauses, drafting of required commencement notices and response documents, set off fast track arbitration and other efficiency options, strategic use of preliminary conferences and timetabling, online arbitration, multi party multi contract class arbitration, amicus and third party funders, pre arbitral referees and interim relief, witness evidence both factual and expert, documentary evidence, production obligations and challenges to production, identifying applicable law and remedies and costs.
