Edward Atiyah

The Arabs:

The Arabs in History Bernard Lewis, 1967 This volume considers the achievement of the Arab peoples and their place in world history from pre Islamic times to the mid 1960s The author examines the awakening that accompanied the advent of Islam and the political religious and social developments that transformed the Arab kingdom into an Islamic empire He describes events in the Middle East and analyzes the forces internal and external that have shaped the Arab world He shows how Western inventions and institutions have shattered the old structures and the traditional way of life affecting every Arab and causing a still unsatisfied demand for social political and cultural renewal

The Arabs Edward Atiyah, 1968 Edward Atiyah s work merits republishing if only to emphasize for younger generations or for those who have only recently recognized the vital importance of the Middle East the rapid pace and vast scope of change since he put down his pen in 1955
