Speaking For Ourselves Voices Of Biblical Women:

Lady Parts Kathryn D. Blanchard, Jane S. Webster, 2012-11-13 How might women in the Bible tell their stories if they were prompted to do so by Eve Ensler's controversial play The Vagina Monologues This collection imagines some answers to that question The monologues herein are written by a variety of authors including scholars undergraduates clergy and laywomen the content of the narratives reflects this variety being at times faithful or irreverent tragic or even funny All seek to give twenty first century voices to women in canonical texts including the Hebrew Bible Deuterocanonical books and New Testament who are often speechless nameless or otherwise marginalized Not for the faint of heart these monologues not only end the silences but also add flesh and bone to characters whose experiences have too easily been justified metaphorized or altogether ignored By naming the torn places in these women's stories this volume invites readers to encounter both the biblical characters and their contemporary interpreters with an attitude of compassionate listening Our hope is that such compassionate listening may contribute not only to more just readings of sacred texts but also to the mission of Eve Ensler and V Day to end global violence against women and girls The Living Church, 1998 Light to the Darkness

Katerina Katsarka Whitley, 2008-08-01 Light to the Darkness is a fresh interpretation of the well loved Advent tradition of Lessons and Carols Replacing the usual scriptural readings from the old and new testaments will be first person dramatic monologues based on these and other passages of scripture Special emphasis will be given to the role of the prophets not only in pointing the way to the Messiah and in offering guidance to the Hebrew people but in offering very contemporary guidance in the 21st century With a reading for each day of Advent churches can choose pieces for their own services of Lessons and Carols while individuals can use the book for their own private devotions Suggestions for music for these services will also be included these will encompass a broad range music to accommodate parishes musical needs and abilities
