The Specular Moment David E. Wellbery, 1996 No study of Goethe's early lyric poetry has been published in English in the last fifty years But the reading of this poetry the author presents is not intended merely to introduce an English readership to a major body of work rather the book delineates for the first time in any language an account of the symbolic network or organizing myth that underlies Goethe's individual poems This marks a decisive break with the previous research on Goethe which has tended to view his poetry as the expression of occasional experiences The author shows on the contrary that Goethe's lyric work circles around a core set of problems and figures that it evinces a systematic coherence unperceived until now Germanic Notes and Reviews, 1996 The Inappropriate Voice Moneera Abdulla Al-Ghadeer, 1999

Martial Frindéthié, 2008-04-21 This work explores the limits and prospects of Afro Caribbean Francophone writers in reshaping or producing action oriented literature It shows how Francophone literatures have followed a hegemonic discourse that leaves little room for thinking outside of traditional cultural and ideological conventions Part One explores the origins of Afro Caribbean Francophone literature and what the author terms griotism a shared heritage of awareness of biological differences a sense of the black hero as black messiah and black people as chosen and the promise of a common racial history Part Two discusses the formidable grip of griotism on Fanon Mudimbe the champions of Creolity Bernabe Chamoiseau and Confiant and well read African women writers Aminata Sow Fall and Mariama Ba Part Three seeks to subvert the discourse of griotism in order to propose a new autonomy for Francophone African writers
